FOREWORD

IN THE PREAMBLE to the Integration Rule of The Florida Bar certain principles are stated that this special issue of the Journal seeks to fulfill.

The Florida Bar is charged with the maintenance of the highest standards and obligations of the profession of law. This volume reminds members of those standards with the inclusion of the Canons of Ethics and the Integration Rule, which explains disciplinary procedure and outlines the requirements under which one may practice law in this State.

The inclusion of a person's name and address in the roster sections indicates that he is a part of the judicial system of Florida and an officer of its courts. He is recognized as a person of integrity and good character. And, as is further stated by the Preamble, he has taken an oath to support the Constitution and the laws of this State and of the United States, and is charged to be true to the public trust and in his professional relationships.

This 14th annual issue has been prepared to serve the public, the courts and the membership. We hope that it will assist in upholding the principles to which it is dedicated.

President's Page

You will find this annual special issue of The Florida Bar Journal a useful one. It contains a wealth of information that can be referred to frequently in our practice, and I commend our staff for an outstanding job in assembling this information.

I urge every member to become familiar with the contents of this issue. It contains the Integration Rule and By-laws of The Florida Bar and the Canons of Ethics with which every lawyer should be thoroughly familiar. It also lists the committees and sections through which most of the services of our Bar are performed, and furnishes the names, addresses and telephone numbers of every member, as well as lists the judges and clerks of all the courts in Florida.

Your Board of Governors and staff strive constantly to improve and expand the services rendered by The Florida Bar to its members. Among programs initiated this year are the new Trial Lawyers Section whose by-laws and initial executive committee are included in this issue, a new committee on Availability of Legal Services which will study such matters as group legal services and specialization in practice, a new Committee on Disciplinary Procedures which will study all of our grievance procedures and recommend improvements, and a new committee on Public Contracts Law to serve those interested in this expanding field.

Your suggestions will be welcomed in regard to the manner in which The Florida Bar can improve its services to our profession and the administration of justice.

Sincerely yours,

William P. Simmons, Jr.

Your Electric Light Bill was gone with this wind.

But, it sure started something...and blew away a lot of old concepts.

Look around you and see all the other things that electricity is doing for you; with an electric service bill covering a whole houseful of servants.

It's heating and cooling homes, shops, factories and offices. It's cooking your meals...washing, drying and ironing your clothes. Opening cans...shining shoes...brushing teeth. If it's modern, it's electric.

But, because you are using more electricity... and we're producing it more economically...the cost per unit (kilowatt hours) is lower than ever.

Next time you get your electric service bill, check the kilowatt hours you used. Then, check how much better you're living...electrically.

The Lawyer and His Practice

When the lawyer turns from his clients' problems to face the cold realities of his own, the economic picture may not be so bright. A series of articles follow to tell him

Selling Yourself —

KEY TO EMPLOYER INTEREST

By Frances Utley*

Successful lawyers are masters of the art of understanding the client's needs and questions and communicating their advice so it is most meaningful to a layman. As lawyers infrequently seek new positions, however, they often find it difficult to apply the principles they have used so effectively with clients to the unfamiliar task of presenting their professional qualifications to prospective employers.

As with client counseling, their goals will be accomplished by both oral and written communication. Thus, selling one's ability to an employer involves use of both the resume and the interview. Because the resume is a black and white affair, however, it is easier to appraise techniques which can be used successfully than to evaluate dialogue of the interview even though the self-same principles are used.

To demonstrate how these techniques apply, let us examine the case histories of six lawyers recently registered with the Lawyer Placement Information Service of the American Bar Association whose resumes were most successful in arousing employer interest. Such interest is essential if each lawyer is to gain the opportunity for further professional advancement, not available in his present employment.

Mrs. Frances Utley is manager of the American Bar Association Lawyer Placement Information Service.

LAWYER ONE

Age 33. Ranked in upper fifth of law school class. Three years' experience as the junior member of a corporate law department with usual duties of such a position. Indicates he has also received a number of special assignments for legal research and analysis which do not fall within the expertise of other members of the department. The factual presentation of the work which he has performed does not attempt to imply responsibility or recognition beyond that which would be natural in his situation. He wishes to leave because a merger is pending and it appears that the law department of which he is a member may not be absorbed by the surviving corporation. He is seeking interesting and significant work in combination with fair and reasonable compensation for performing that work.

Here is no prima donna, says the resume, but one who appears to be able to fit himself reasonably and effectively into the team work necessary in a successful law office. A listing of his participation in the activities of the organized bar in providing legal services to the indigent suggests that his practicality is strongly leavened by a sense of professional responsibility.

LAWYER TWO

Age 33. Top ranking graduate of a major law school. Eight years of experience with large law firms. He now seeks to associate with a corporate law department. He presents his legal experience by a brief narrative describing the year by year growth in responsibility which he has had within the law firms. The judgments of the firms which have resulted in his advancement are the strongest possible recommendations of his capability. He need not, nor does not, embellish the story.

LAWYER THREE

Age 33. Ranked in upper fifth of law school class. Eight years of experience, four with a law firm and four with a corporate law department. Both his reason for seeking a new position and his long range career objectives unequivocally emphasize his desire to continue to grow professionally and thereby be able to assume ever-increasing responsibility, a possibility not present with his current employer. He succinctly lists all the major areas of his experience and responsibility and summarizes by saying "I believe I have had the good fortune to have been associated with some of the best lawyers in ——————. I think that some of the things they could teach have been learned. I am seeking an opportunity to use what they taught."

LAWYER FOUR

Age 28. No class ranking given. The only one of the six who will not consider re-location if the right opportunity presents itself. The junior of a two-man corporate legal department, he points out that this particular circumstance, coupled with the large size of the company, has required that he develop a working knowledge in many areas of the law. He also outlines unusual responsibilities in conducting lessons for supervisory and managerial candidates on everyday legal problems and their obligations as corporate representatives, as the company's security agent, and as advisor to the personnel department in meetings with civil rights groups.

He gives six specific reasons for seeking a new position, one of which is particularly telling. "Applicant is a hard worker and finds that his present employment of short hours and an unusually light workload unstimulating and unchallenging."

LAWYER FIVE

Age 35. No class ranking given. The only specialist of the six, he offers four years of legal experience plus four earlier years in non-legal work. In both areas his responsibilities have been closely related to investments, securities and corporate financial planning. He concentrates on giving evidence of his in-depth experience in this area, but also specifically points out that the results he has achieved have depended upon obtaining maximum cooperation from subordinates and good relationships with top-level administrators. Although he has had three different positions during his career, he presents each as a step in the orderly development of expertise in his particular area, now culminating in his search for a permanent position.

LAWYER SIX

Age 33. Ranked in upper 4% of law school class. Four years' experience in a corporation and law firm. Will consider only a position in a corporate law department for two reasons: First, he believes that it is there that his background in the law, business and sales can best be utilized. Secondly, he hopes to identify and be familiar with the policies and goals of a particular business concern as distinguished from the detached atmosphere of a large law firm, so that his contribution as a lawyer will be most meaningful to him. Aiming solely at the corporate legal departments, he uses a series of highlights from his work, samples as it were, that would be particularly pertinent to the needs and interests of the corporate employer.

As all six of the lawyers are young and offer three to eight years of experience in the general corporate law field, this might, at first blush appear to be the reason for their success in arousing employer interest. In fact, however, those in this age and experience group compete with a greater number of similarly qualified young lawyers for the available positions than any other segment of the profession with the exception of those just graduating from law school. Why then were these six lawyers more successful in arousing employer interest than others of similar age, training and experience who were introduced to employers at the same time? Most obvious is the first impression of neatness and attractiveness given by the physical appearance of their resumes. No employer need struggle with illegible handwriting or a typewriter ribbon that should have been retired from service months ago. Information is set forth in clear, short paragraphs surrounded by ample white space. You want to read these resumes.

Although each of the six has used his own individual approach in presenting his qualifications, each clearly demonstrates the age-old adage, "The workman must be worthy of his hire." The lawyer tells the employer, "These are my skills and ability. I believe they demonstrate I will be able to perform successfully for you, so that I will be worth to you the salary I ask."

In addition to specific facts regarding his professional experience each lawyer also presented those factors of his personality that are important in employer consideration: Evidence of stability, ambition, congeniality and willingness to work. These factors are presented without self-laudatory statements. Rather, they are usually subtly conveyed through the reasons for seeking a new opportunity or in an outline of long range professional goals. There is no false modesty, however, in making the facts known. The lawyer has recognized that the employer does not have a crystal ball, so that it is only justice to both to provide all the necessary information.

A simple check list may be helpful in translating your own unique background and experience in terms that respond to employer needs:

- What qualifications, both professional and personal, would I look for if I were an employer who needed my experience?
- What would I be willing and able to pay him?
- What are my chief professional abilities which have contributed to my current income level? Can I give examples where my expertise has resulted in substantial savings of time, money or trouble for my client?
- Do I work well as a member of a team? What evidence of this could I provide?
- Do I have special or unusual qualifications that might make me particularly useful to a special employer, such as language skills, knowledge of new technologies or extensive experience in some phase of business and commercial life?

In answering questions such as these you are viewing yourself in the light of employer needs. By answering his real, but unspoken, questions in a straightforward, realistic fashion you almost inevitably must effectively become the best possible salesman of your abilities.

For those lawyers who are seeking to adapt themselves to the rapidly changing professional picture by searching for a position in an area in which they do not offer previous background and experience, a special word of caution is due. Mere desire to make such a change is not enough. You must take the added step of deciding what adjustments, primarily in the area of compensation, you can afford to make for the period necessary for you to acquire the needed skill and expertise in an unfamiliar field.

For example, if you are moving from the private practice of law in one state to another in which you are not admitted, you will face a period of limited usefulness to the employer until you have been admitted to practice in the new state and familiarized yourself with the courts and the community. If you seek to move from the general practice to an area of specialization, you will find yourself competing with lawyers whose experience has been in the restricted area. Employer self-interest, all other factors being equal, will almost certainly favor the lawyer whose directed experience means immediate usefulness over one who must acquire the needed specialized background.

All Work and No Play . . .

IS IT THE ANSWER?

By PHILIP S. HABERMANN*

We are almost embarrassed to discuss such old and simple matters but the thoughts expressed herein are so elementary that we tend to overlook them. They apply only to that 80 per cent of the bar that has more practice than they can handle with promptness. All that is intended is to remind you of the importance of these fundament tenets of conducting an efficient practice. Perhaps a reading will remind you that your own habits and methods have drifted away from sensible good performance. Only you can do anything about it.

THE PROBLEM of the average lawyer is how to get so much done in so little time. The task of trying to keep up with the work leaves little or no time for the obligation of keeping up to date in the changes in the law and for the lawyer's post-graduate legal education.

What can the lawyer do? There are many answers, and few alternatives, such as:

1. Work harder.
2. Work longer.
3. Learn better work habits.
4. Use more forms and practice aids.
5. Mechanize where possible.
6. Hire more help.
7. Delegate more to non-legal personnel.
8. Specialize.
9. Slough off unprofitable work.
10. Streamline his office record system.
11. Form a partnership.
12. Save on correspondence.
13. Schedule the work.
14. Provide a better office.

Obviously, if these steps are successful, a greater volume of work can be handled. This will mean higher net income, assuming the proper time records, bookkeeping, billing, and collection policies are followed. That, however, is another story. The primary problem is still in getting the work done.

The plight of the professional man is not a happy one. The volume of work is increasing, as is its complexity.

Mr. Habermann is the editor of the Wisconsin Bar Bulletin. This article is reprinted with his permission and with thanks to the Wisconsin Bar Bulletin where it will be found in the February, 1965 issue, page 16.*

Looming up in the future is the distinct possibility that the working man, through the efforts of his union, is going to soon have a 35, 30 or even 25 hour week, contrasted to the long week the lawyer now puts in. Where does this leave the professional man? Can he survive on a 25 hour week?

Higher fees for the work done are not the answer. A full day's pay for a full-day's work, however, is definitely reasonable. That is not the situation today, where the typical lawyer is able to charge only 5 or 6 hours despite putting in an 8 to 10 hour day. Our friends the doctors, the dentists and the accountants do not have this "shrinkage." In fact, most accountants are able to charge up the entire day's time to collectible billings.

So What Do We Do?

Perhaps a careful rundown of each of the possible points of self-improvement will indicate some possibilities. Of course, these cannot all apply to every lawyer, but where practices the man who cannot in some manner improve his ways? Let us consider the items, one by one.

Work Harder

A sober, self-analysis will often show that we do not work as hard as we can. Understandably, we are all a bit lazy, and hate to keep our nose to the grindstone steadily. Nevertheless, good work habits are hard to come by and a comparison of lawyers makes it clear many apply themselves much more diligently than others. A certain amount of window gazing, thumb twiddling and pure "thinking time" is essential in any legal matter, but does not include day dreaming, friendly visits on the telephone or in person, extended coffee breaks and newspaper reading during office hours. True, the self-employed lawyer who is his own boss can set his own pace. What I am trying to say is that that pace may be very leisurely. These habits become worse, instead of better. A remarkable result often occurs when a lawyer, working under pressure, or setting some definite goals, discovers how much he can actually turn out in the course of a full work day if he does not fritter his time away on wasted and useless diversions and interruptions.

Not all lawyers can practice at a break-neck speed, with the boiler running at full pressure all the time. Yet when operating under the gun, as trying to clear up a desk full of work on the day before you take an extended vacation, you can prove to yourself how much you can produce, under pressure, if you really want to make the effort.

Work Longer

The lawyer who keeps time records knows at the end of the day, week and month how much chargeable time he has put on the books. He should also be able to discover how much wasted time he has each day. Banker's hours may be fine for bankers, but there is no reason why a lawyer, swamped with work, should show up at the office after 9:30 in the morning, leave for an extended lunch hour, and knock off at 3:30 in the afternoon. One of the reasons why the so-called "law factories" in the larger cities are so highly efficient is that the working lawyers do maintain rather regular and long working hours. True, the ordinary lawyer puts in many extra hours evenings, Saturdays and Sundays handling special matters, attending meetings, and the like, but despite this his regular office hours should be adhered to. We need not feel sorry for ourselves, for our prosperous brothers in the medical profession work long hours, and often on seven days a week. Moreover, their hours are apt to be quite regular. A lawyer must necessarily have office hours when clients are available, and that is normally regular business hours. Nevertheless, the early morning hours from 8:00 to 9:30 and late afternoon hours are often most productive, for that is when the phone doesn't ring, the door doesn't open and the lawyer can closet himself with dictation or research problems.

Learn Better Work Habits

This is a corollary of working harder, but it extends deeper than that. Work habits are largely a matter of organization. The use of "to do" lists, the careful examination and classification of pending matters so that first things come first, and the proper utilization of the lawyer's time are very important. With time at such a premium, no lawyer should ever do anything that he can delegate to a non-lawyer employee in the office. Time consuming duties such as opening the mail, placing long distance calls, running errands and the like are simply too costly in time for the lawyer to do himself.

The rule of "first things first" is too often forgotten. The client with the $10 matter who badgers the lawyer may get priority treatment even though not entitled to it, while more important matters are delayed. This should not be.

Many lawyers jump from one legal matter to another, like a xylophone player, giving each one a lick or two and then the next, but never finishing anything. You simply can't do that. Wind up a matter, then turn to another. Otherwise nothing moves to completion and you waste untold time reviewing files and starting over again.

Keeping up to date on trivial detail is part of the problem. The higher the pile, the more difficult it is to dig out from under. Then there is always the human reluctance to shy away from tackling the administrative details and nonprofitable items that pile up on one's desk. If these can be handled promptly, on a day-to-day basis, the pile never grows and the temptation to avoid tackling the pile never occurs. An excellent rule is always to answer every letter the day it comes in if that is humanly possible. The simple preparation of a "to do" list showing the items for attention and assigning some priority to them, is of great help. Cross them off, one by one, as they are done. Recopy the list and start over, perhaps daily. Don't hide important work in a drawer—keep it out on the top of the desk where it will serve as a bothersome reminder. In other words, learn to drive yourself and, like a long-distance runner, you will find that practice in doing this makes the work easier. Only by setting definite goals and accomplishing them can the lawyer learn better work habits.

Use More Forms and Aids

Elementary as this is, too few lawyers utilize form letters, practice aids, checklists and the like. Repetitive procedures are inherent in the practice of law. We simply cannot start fresh on each procedure. You should save good examples of past effort, such as drafts of wills, leases, contracts, estate plans and the like. These should be carefully filed in notebooks, properly indexed and kept handy for quick reference. It is much less time consuming (and less expensive) to copy them on the copying machine and to have the typist prepare new drafts, with the information you give her, than it is to dictate or draft a new pleading or form, starting from scratch every time. Here is an excellent place to delegate much of the repetitive and routine work to a lay employee, saving the lawyer's time in going over and over the same material.

Some offices utilize pre-printed forms, carbonized forms, boilerplate drafts and the like to speed up the drafting process. This can save hours and days each month for the lawyer and enable him to devote his time to more productive work.

Mechanize Where Possible

There is nothing new in this. Certainly every office today should have a good copying machine, a good electric dictating machine, electric typewriters, electric adding machines, and the like. The high cost of secretarial and clerical help simply does not permit the modern lawyer to do without every piece of modern office equipment that he can obtain. Teaching old dogs new tricks is sometimes difficult but it is possible. Many lawyers refuse to use dictating equipment, yet they are biting off their own nose to spite their face. It cannot be used for every procedure, but it does have a definite place in every law office. The copying machine is perhaps the most valuable asset the lawyer can have, for it saves tremendous time in reproducing materials. A good duplicating machine of the mimeograph or multilith variety will prove invaluable in a larger office. You are penny wise and pound foolish if you short yourself on mechanized equipment.

Hire More Help

Otherwise smart lawyers show a remarkable reluctance to take on the needed associate or law employee. They are doubly foolish, for not only will such associate relieve the lawyer of much work that may not be profitable for him, thereby releasing him for more profitable work, but the associate will bring in enough gross income to more than cover the expense of his salary and overhead and still yield a "profit" for the hiring lawyer.

The same may be said for clerical and stenographic personnel, expensive as it is today. A lawyer exists on paperwork and records, and these simply must be done promptly and properly. The greatest bottleneck in many offices is this lack of secretarial personnel. If you can't afford it permanently, hire temporary help or part-time help to solve your problem. Remember, a busy lawyer simply cannot afford to do any of the non-legal jobs that he can delegate to a lay employee.

Such delegation to non-legal personnel can best be illustrated by the way in which many successful lawyers handle the tremendous volume of income tax preparation. These lawyers hire, on a temporary basis, persons who are competent to type, check and prepare the income tax returns in large volume, working at the direction of the lawyer. The lawyer maintains the client contact and assumes the responsibility of personally checking and approving each return. Yet the lawyer himself does not have to do the tedious work of filling in, computing, typing, and double checking each return. As the volume in some of these offices runs into the thousands of returns, this can be a real boon to the lawyer, and a moneymaker as well.

Specialize

The time may well come when the busy lawyer faces the necessity of specializing or limiting his practice to certain fields. Of course, the lawyer must always be true to his oath and stand ready to serve the needs of every client. Yet where other lawyers are available to perform these services, a lawyer who does not want to handle divorce work or corporation work or tax work or negligence cases can very well suggest to the client that he be permitted to refer them to a competent practitioner in these fields. The specialist becomes more proficient and at the same time more efficient. He can better serve his clients and better keep abreast of the law in the field of his specialty.

By taking in an associate who can handle much of the work the lawyer desiring to specialize does not have time to handle, this work can be retained in the office. The point is, every lawyer can't do everything and do it well. He may reach the point where he will find it necessary to choose what he wants to do and devote himself more and more to that line of work. The lawyer who insists on trying to be jack of all trades and master of none may very well find himself frittering his practice away on small matters while the important cases go elsewhere.

Slough Off Unprofitable Work

If the lawyer's time is at great premium, he may find it necessary to turn down unprofitable and time-consuming work. For example, he may find that he no longer can afford to process through his office a volume of collection work or abstract examinations which the younger lawyer down the street might need and welcome. A close check of the books will indicate those matters which do not yield at least $20 an hour gross for the time expended. Of course, if you have time to handle this type of work as well as the rest of your practice, then that is another matter. But if your profitable practice is forced to wait while you clear your desk of a pile of unprofitable trivia, your net income is bound to suffer. This unprofitable practice does not necessarily have to be sent away from the office. By hiring additional staff, both legal and non-legal, this work can be done in the office, subject to the supervision and approval of the lawyer, and the result will be that it will pay its own way and make the lawyer a profit.

Streamline Office Record System

This is not the place to discuss the intricacies of a filing and bookkeeping system. A good system is essential. A good system is not complicated. It enables the lawyer to retrieve the information he wants, when he wants it. It produces the necessary records for tax purposes and enables the lawyer to properly bill work with a knowledge of how much time he has invested in that particular job. The important thing is that a modern, simplified office record system relieves the lawyer of pressure and worry. It makes his job easier because he is more efficient. But remember, don't get bogged down with too much complicated filing and bookkeeping procedure. Make these records a means to an end, not the end itself. Delegate the responsibility for doing the record-keeping work to a competent employee. Do not hesitate to consult professional help on the installation of adequate records.

Form a Partnership

The majority of lawyers are still sole practitioners, despite the established fact that lawyers who form partnerships make considerably more money. Probably this is partly due to the fact that only the better lawyers tend to become partners. But there are many basic efficiencies in the partnership system. Two or more heads are always better than one. There is the opportunity to specialize. Someone is at the office while one partner is gone. There is a built-in savings in overhead for rent, books, supplies, and clerical help. The trend is strongly in the direction of forming more and larger partnerships. Wherever feasible, the lawyer should thoroughly consider whether he might benefit by being a member of a partnership.

Save on Correspondence

Most lawyers are slaves to paperwork. This includes the writing and filing of innumerable letters. All of this takes time and costs much money. There are means of eliminating this burden. One example is the extended use of the telephone. Frequently it is cheaper and much faster to handle a matter with a long-distance call than to write a letter, file it, wait for the reply and acknowledge and file the reply. Of course, in many matters it is essential that a record be kept. Where such matters are handled over the phone, the lawyer can jot down or dictate a brief memorandum of what was said or agreed upon and place this in the file.

A recent development is the carbonized memo form of letter. Here a brief message is typewritten or handwritten and sent to the recipient, together with a copy and carbon paper attached. The recipient can jot his answer on the original, return it and preserve for his files the carbon copy.

Another great timesaver is to utilize the copying machine for quick replies. Here the lawyer takes a letter that he receives, jots his reply in handwriting in the margin or at the bottom, makes a photo copy on his office equipment, returns the photo copy with the answer written thereon and files the original. This saves on his time and the stenographer's time. It also means only half as much material to file.

Scheduling Work

Many law procedures, such as the probate of an estate or the trial of a law suit, are handled on a time schedule, or at least they can or should be. Nothing will make a matter march along better than to schedule it on a calendar-type schedule immediately upon its receipt in the office. This schedule can be in the form of a large wall chart showing the necessary steps and procedures to be taken and the dates established for doing this. This will serve not only as a checklist to the lawyers to be sure that the proper steps are done at the proper time, but will prod him into action to see that they are done. The best legitimate advertising that any lawyer can have is to establish a reputation for handling matters entrusted to him as promptly as possible. Scheduling will help do this and once commenced, no lawyer will want to discontinue it.

This is not a new idea, for industry long ago learned that the efficient flow of jobs through a plant necessitates the use of job scheduling procedures. Not only does it move matters along, but it enables the person in charge to see at a glance where any particular matter stands at the time and the total volume in process. Probably the full use of scheduling procedures on every law matter that can possibly be adapted to scheduling will do more than any other single thing to increase the efficiency and production of a lawyer in handling his practice.

Better Office

Last, and certainly not least, the lawyer should examine his office to determine whether he might not improve it. The importance of modern, clean and roomy work facilities cannot be over emphasized in considering office efficiency. Lawyers who have built new buildings for themselves or who have remodeled and expanded rental quarters are simply amazed at the increase in efficiency and production in their office once they move into the new quarters. Possibly part of this is psychological, but much of it is due to physical factors. Air-conditioning, better lighting, adequate space, sound proofing, better traffic flow, more storage place and all the rest each contribute a little to the over all improvement in efficiency. This may cost money initially but it will produce tremendous results.

Conclusion

The old nursery rhyme goes "All work and no play makes a dull boy out of Jack." What it doesn't say is that it also may make Jack a wealthy man, if he can stand the pace.

Lawyers are certainly too intelligent to fall for any suggestion that they should resort to the "all work" schedule. Nevertheless, most of them can work harder, if they want to, and especially they can work more efficiently. This seems to be the only answer to digging out from under the overwhelming pile of work on their desks.

There is no one answer to the problem. Each lawyer must size up his own situation and see which of the factors mentioned might, in a slight way, add to his productivity. Simple and fundamental as some of these points may be, they nevertheless are the answer to improved efficiency.

Sound pretty rugged? Well, perhaps it is. So is a mile the first time you run it, but by practice and conditioning you can make it in stride. Law practice is no gravy train. Look about and you will see that the really successful lawyers all work hard—mighty hard. Harder and longer than their clients know about.

Now I don't want to be responsible for a lot of coronaries, so don't change your pace from a slow walk to a fast run overnight. In the long pull, though, the pressure will be off, not on, if you can get caught up and used to processing more work through better work habits—hence fewer, not more coronaries!

It boils down, then, to a matter of personal choice. Do you want to be a successful lawyer? Do you want to make a better than average income? If you do, then you must work at it. Work hard and long. You'll be amazed at how much you can get used to it and at the result.

But play a little, too!

ACT I

Cast: Attorney Robert Lawful
Mrs. James Barrister, widow of a recently deceased sole practitioner of law

Place: Attorney Lawful's office

SCENE 1

Widow Barrister: Jim had a wonderful practice. You know that the First Savings and Loan Association was his best client. He had served them for forty years. Jim's practice was earning us about $25,000 a year for the last five or six years. I expect that the sale of his practice now should bring me a pretty good sum.

Attorney Lawful: Well, Edith, it doesn't always work that way. You know that Jim and I were friends for many years. I'm glad to have a chance to handle his estate, and I'll give you all of the extra care and help I can in getting over this difficult period. I don't know how much you and Jim talked about the worth of a law practice while he was alive. But in my experience, it's not worth a great deal once a sole practitioner has passed away. But I'll make an inventory of his files and his books, as well as looking into his other property, and I'll try to report to you as soon as I can on what I think you can get out of it.

SCENE 2—same place, two weeks later

Attorney: I'm glad to report to you, Edith, that your husband had a life insurance policy for $10,000 which he carried through the bar association. I have initiated the necessary paper work to insure prompt payment of this amount to you.

Widow: I didn't know about that policy, Bob, but what about the worth of his practice?

Attorney: My associate and I have spent almost three days going over your husband's files and accounts. We have had some difficulty finding out which clients owe him what money, because receipts for advances he made for his clients were scattered about in various files and in his desk, and in some cases, there were notes on scraps of paper about cash outlays made on his cases. He did keep a file of unpaid bills he has sent, and we shall try to collect these for you. . .

Widow: (breaks in) But what about selling his practice?

Attorney: Well, you see Edith, a solo lawyer's practice has no established value after he dies. We'll contact all of his clients to see who they want to continue his cases. For those that want us to, we will divide the fee with your husband's estate, based on the work he did on a file prior to his death. And as a long standing friend of both your's and Jim's, you can be sure that we will treat you generously in making this apportionment. Some of Jim's clients will want to seek another attorney than our firm. In these cases, we will represent you to seek payment to you for the work Jim did prior to his death. If Jim had taken on an associate some years ago, and made him a partner, he might have been able gradually to turn his clients over to him and to have agreed to some kind of payment for his estate. Of course, Jim's tangible property, like his library and furniture, have value for someone and will be sold, but his practice and his files are of very doubtful value, since no attorney would buy these without assurance that the client will stay with him.

ACT II

Cast: Henry Elder
James Senior
Bert Junior
Mrs. Jane Middleman, widow of Partner William Middleman

Place: The office of Henry Elder, a partner in the firm of Elder, Senior & Middleman

SCENE 1

Henry Elder: You can't imagine, Jane, what a terrible blow Bill's sudden death has been to our firm. We lost a friend as well as a very important member of our office. We're all going to miss Bill terribly. I asked you to meet with me today because I'm concerned about what you and your children will be doing from here on. How old are the kids now?

Jane Middleman: Well, Billy is twelve and Karen is sixteen. I just don't know what I'm going to do, Henry.

Henry Elder: Our partnership agreement provides that we will continue Bill's drawing for twelve months after his death. That represents his earned interest in the firm's files. Also, as you know, we've got a life insurance policy through the state bar association and you will receive $7,500 through that. Can you tell me what other life insurance or other arrangements Bill had made for a situation like this one.

Jane Middleman: Well, you know, Henry, Bill had a heart murmur all of his life, and he was unable to get insurance except through group policies. So, I'm afraid that, except for a bar association policy, the insurance he carried through the firm is the only life insurance that we have. I really don't know what I'm going to do. You know that I am a graduate of State University, and that I majored in journalism. But I have never had any practical experience, and just don't know how I'm going to support the family, let alone put the children through college. I expect that their grandparents, who have some means, will help in that department. But I hate to impose on them for living expenses. Do you think that there is anything that I could do here at the office to help out with the family finances?

Henry Elder: Well that's a thought, Jane. Suppose I discuss it with the other partners and meet with you again in a few days.

SCENE 2—A meeting of the partners

Henry Elder: I have asked you to meet with me to tell you about a conversation I had with Jane Middleman. It seems that Bill had made very little provision for his family, and that he was uninsurable, so it looks like we'll have to do something to help out. As you know, Bill was associated with our firm for twenty years before his sudden death, and we've all benefited from his contribution over these years. It seems only right that we should do something for his family now.

Bert Junior: In a way you're right Henry. But you know I've only been with the firm a few years. I brought a substantial practice in with me, but I don't know how I can justify paying an annuity to Bill's widow just because he didn't provide for her properly. After all, this could go on for many years, and could easily extend to as long a period of time as the time that Bill was active in the firm. What do you really think the responsibility of a group of partners is in a deal like this?

Jim Senior: Well, there's something to what you say, Bert, but Henry and I were together with Bill for a long time, and whether we have a real obligation or not, we want to do something to help out in this situation. I feel a personal obligation and think Bill would have acted the same way if I had died prematurely.

Henry Elder: I can see your point also, Bert, and I can see Jim's point. I think you'll appreciate our position. I thought this through before the meeting, and would like to make this suggestion: Let's employ Jane on a sort of "helpout" basis. We'll charge $3,000 a year to my share of our earnings, and $2,500 a year to Jim's earnings, and just $500 a year to you, Bert. That will give Jane $6,000 a year to get by on. We'll tell her that she should come into the office to help us with the filing and time record keeping as her household duties permit, and if she should be able to learn how to type, that that would be most helpful.

SCENE 3—Ten years later, the partners meet again

Jim Senior: You know, I have been thinking about the fact that we still carry Jane on the payroll. She helps us out when we're in a bind, but I really don't see much of her.

Henry Elder: What did it cost us last year, Jim?

Jim Senior: She drew $10,000 last year. As you know, we decided to give her a little more as her kids went to college and as the cost of things rose.

Bert Junior: How much do you think we have paid her in ten years since Bill's death?

Jim Senior: I have been curious about that, too, Bert, and I got together some figures. In the last ten years, we have paid Jane $70,000, and, frankly, it's beginning to hurt. She hasn't developed any real skills in our office, and I guess the training she got at State University doesn't have much relevance to our work. . .

ACT III

Place: Jefferson Willright, Esq., knocking at the Pearly Gates

St. Peter: Just a minute, Willright, I'm coming, (opening door to gate house). Come into the ante-room. Come in! Come in! We're always glad to see a talented lawyer up here; there are so many new Laws of the Universe to be prepared for the Chief Executive. Well, Jeff, how did you leave things down there?

Willright: Oh, I guess the boys at the office will miss me for a while. But they'll get along. They are a smart group. I should know. After all, I picked them. Milly is going to have a bad time for a while. We were married for 36 years, you know. But at least she'll be properly provided for.

St. Peter: That's not what I hear from a lot of lawyers that apply here. How did you manage that? Your page in the Great Book shows that you started out pretty poor in life.

Willright: I certainly was. Of course, I'm a good lawyer, if I say so myself. And a rather good businessman too. I saw years ago that if we didn't provide for a system to take care of our families and ourselves after retirement or death, we'd end up in a pretty poor state, literally. Unless you have a system, it is difficult to plan for retirement or death. You always tend to live up to your cash income. Twenty-five years ago, while our firm was still pretty young, we set up pension trust funds. Of course, what we put into it for the partners was not tax sheltered. The main point was that we put in 10% of firm profits, and never let the boys have that part of their earnings. My share in that fund built up to about a quarter of a million dollars in twenty-five years. That, plus my life insurance, will take care of Mildred—and leave something for my children too. Of course, we set up a separate, tax sheltered plan for our employees too. I guess the boys will be changing all this a bit, since the new amendment to the self-employed retirement law.

St. Peter: That was good thinking on your part. We get so many lawyers up here who are worried about their wives and families for years, because they didn't plan properly in advance of their trip up here. And sometimes when the wives also arrive, you should see the family fights. They get so bad sometimes, that we ask them both to spend a few years down below. Lucifer puts a stop to all that. He puts the wives to legal research and the lawyers on housekeeping until they learn to get along again.

Willright: I know that the boys learned enough from me to keep up those retirement systems. But I'm worried that without me watching them now, they are going to become slackers, and go home before eleven o'clock. What time is it in Florida now?

St. Peter, (looking at the Master Clock): Nine thirty p.m. in Florida. Would you like to have a look at your office in my Universal Telescope?

Willright: Can I get a look at the office that way?

St. Peter: Of course. (Turning knobs on the instrument.) I can show you any place in the Universe on this. Would you rather have a look at a Martian law firm? There's a good one I watch often on the Pink Plateau.

Willright: That would be interesting. But I'd certainly like to get a look at the boys first.

St. Peter: All right. Just look in here now. I have your office in view.

(Willright steps to the Universal Telescope. Looks in.)

Willright: They're carrying on. The place is still all lit up. Even the girls are there. (pause) Now that's unusual. They usually are all gone by six. (Growing agitated) Hey, what are they doing? They can't do that. Peter! Hey, Peter! Stop them. Somebody might have a question! Don't let them do that.

Peter: We can't interfere with the living. What's getting into you, Willright?

Willright (still looking through Telescope, increasingly agitated): They're throwing them out. They mustn't! My father's legal files. They're throwing them out. . . . .

The Pre-Arranged Funeral — An Essential Part of Estate Planning

A Message to Lawyers from Lithgow Funeral Centers, Inc.

Estate planning today is complex. Chances are you spend long hours in arriving at the best method for the disposition of your clients' property at the time of death. But the lawyer's work remains unfinished if he neglects to advise the client to pre-plan his funeral arrangements.

We at Lithgow are all too aware that the time of death, with its attendant sorrow and emotional stress, is the worst of times to plan the funeral. The loss sustained by relatives may make any discussion of funeral arrangements distasteful. The decedent's own wishes may be unknown.

Your client can assure that his wishes for his funeral are made known and relieve his survivors of the burden of making the decisions by advising him to complete a pre-arrangement form supplied by Lithgow Funeral Centers, Inc.

There is no charge for this useful form and no obligation. Pre-need arrangements are not binding upon survivors unless incorporated in the will—the plan remains flexible.

Newly elected members shall take office at the conclusion of the annual meeting of The Florida Bar following election to office. Any vacancy on the Board of Governors arising in the office of representative from a judicial circuit shall be filled by vote of the remaining members of the Board for the unexpired term, from the active membership of such circuit.

1. On or before January 1st of each year every active member of The Florida Bar shall pay annual dues to The Florida Bar in such an amount as shall be set at an annual meeting, and shall also file with the Executive Director a statement setting forth his business and residential addresses and any other information that may be required by the Board of Governors, provided that at no annual meeting shall the dues be fixed at more than $37.50 per annum, provided further that dues for active members who are on active duty with any of the Armed Services of the United States shall not be fixed at more than $10.00 per annum. 5. The annual dues of The Florida Bar shall not include the dues of local or regional voluntary bar associations, and shall not be shared with such associations. The Florida Bar may, however, as it sees fit, cooperate with and encourage local or regional voluntary bar associations.

Article IX
FISCAL CONTROL

1. Budget Committee. The President-elect, with the approval of the Board of Governors, shall appoint a Budget Committee consisting of not less than five members, whose responsibility shall be the budget for the fiscal year during which the president-elect shall serve as president. The term of office of such committee shall be for the two years in which the president-elect making the appointment shall serve as president-elect and as president.

2. Notice of Budget Committee Hearing. The Executive Director shall publish a notice in The Florida Bar Journal not later than the March issue, giving notice of a meeting of the Budget Committee to receive suggestions from members of The Florida Bar for the preparation of the budget for the succeeding fiscal year. Such meeting shall be held not earlier than January 1st and not later than April 30th preceding the fiscal year for which the budget is to be prepared, but not earlier than the 15th day of the month succeeding the month in which the notice is published.

3. Tentative Budget of Budget Committee. At the meeting announced by such published notice, the Budget Committee shall hear and receive suggestions from members of The Florida Bar for the preparation of the budget for The Florida Bar for the succeeding fiscal year. The manner of filing and hearing such suggestions may be provided by the by-laws. After consideration of the suggestions received, the Budget Committee shall prepare a tentative budget for the succeeding fiscal year, which shall be filed with the Executive Director.

4. Proposed Budget of Board of Governors. The Board of Governors, after considering the tentative budget prepared by the Budget Committee, shall adopt a proposed budget for the succeeding fiscal year in time to allow publication thereof not later than the May issue of The Florida Bar Journal.

5. Notice of Board of Governors Hearing upon Proposed Budget. The Executive Director shall publish a notice in The Florida Bar Journal not later than the May issue, giving notice of a meeting of the Board of Governors to be held no earlier than the 15th day of the month succeeding the month the notice is published. Such notice shall contain the proposed budget, and shall advise that the proposed budget shall become final unless written objections to any item or items therein shall be filed by members of The Florida Bar with the Executive Director on or before the tenth day of the month following the month of publication.

6. Hearing and Adoption of Budget of Board of Governors. If written objections to any item or items of the proposed budget are filed by members of The Florida Bar within the time provided, a hearing thereon shall be held by the Board of Governors at the time and place provided in such notice. After such hearing the Board of Governors shall consider the objections filed, and upon consideration thereof the Board may amend the proposed budget within the scope of the objections. The budget, approved by the Board of Governors after such hearing, or the proposed budget if no objections thereto are filed, shall become the budget of The Florida Bar for the succeeding fiscal year.

7. Filing of Budget with the Court. The budget adopted by the Board of Governors shall be filed with the Supreme Court on or before June 30.

8. Amendment of the Budget. The Board of Governors, in their discretion from time to time, may amend the budget in order to provide funds for needed expenditures; provided, however, that the total of increases made in the items of the budget, including new items created by such amendments, shall not exceed five per cent of the total income of The Florida Bar for the current fiscal year as anticipated at the time of the amendment. If a proposed amendment shall cause the total of increases in items of the budget made by amendment to exceed such limitation, a hearing upon objections to any item or items therein shall be held by the Board of Governors in like manner as that provided for the proposed budget. The Executive Director shall publish a notice in The Florida Bar Journal giving notice of a Board of Governors meeting to be held no earlier than the 15th day of the month succeeding the month in which the notice is published. Such notice shall contain the proposed amendment and shall advise that the proposed amendment shall become final unless written objections to any item or items therein shall be filed by members of The Florida Bar with the Executive Director on or before the tenth day of the month following the month of publication. If the proposed amendment is adopted by the Board of Governors in whole or in part, the amendment of the budget shall be filed with the Supreme Court within the month following the month in which the amendment is adopted.

9. Appropriations of the Budget. Each item of the budget shall be deemed a fixed appropriation, subject only to amendment as provided. All uncommitted balances of appropriations shall revert at the end of each fiscal year to the funds from which appropriated. No uncommitted appropriations shall continue beyond the fiscal year for which the budget containing the appropriation is adopted.

10. Disbursements. The appropriations of the budget shall be disbursed by the Executive Director in his capacity as Treasurer of The Florida Bar in accordance with the by-laws. He shall make such disbursements as are required to pay the obligations and expenses of The Florida Bar made within the provisions of the budget.

11. Accounting and Audit. The Board of Governors shall cause books and accounts to be kept in accordance with good accounting practices. Such records shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant authorized to practice in the State of Florida, and a copy of the audit shall be filed forthwith with the Supreme Court. Within a reasonable time after completion of the audit a condensed summary thereof shall be published in The Florida Bar Journal, and a copy filed with the Supreme Court.

12. Compensation and Expenses. No member of the Board of Governors, and no member or officer of The Florida Bar, other than the Executive Director and the employees of The Florida Bar, and except as may be authorized pursuant to Article XI hereof, shall receive compensation, but any such person may, with the approval of the Board of Governors, be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of services for The Florida Bar.

Article X
RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The Court adopts, as a code of ethics applicable to the members of The Florida Bar, the Canons of Ethics for Judges and Attorneys. Rules A and B, promulgated by this Court on January 27, 1941, and the Rules of Conduct adopted on the same date, as published on pages 3210 through 3221, Florida Statutes 1957, together with such amendments thereto as are now adopted or may be adopted by this Court.

Article XI
RULES OF DISCIPLINE

The exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court over the discipline of persons admitted to the practice of law shall be administered in the following manner subject to the supervision and review of the Court.

RULE 11.01: PRINCIPLES AND DEFINITIONS

(1) Notice and knowledge of rules. Every member of The Florida Bar is within the jurisdiction of this Court and its agencies under this Rule and is charged with notice and held to know the provisions of this rule and the standards of ethical and professional conduct prescribed by this Court.

(2) Process. Every member of The Florida Bar is charged with notice of the provisions of Section 6 of Article II relating to change of mailing address or military status and that mailing by registered or certified mail of papers or notices prescribed in these rules to the last mailing address of an attorney as shown by the official records in the office of the Executive Director of The Florida Bar shall be sufficient notice and service unless this Court shall direct otherwise.

(3) Definitions. Wherever used in these rules the following words or terms shall have the meaning herein set forth unless the use thereof shall clearly indicate a different meaning:

(a) The accused or accused attorney: a member of The Florida Bar who has been accused of misconduct or whose conduct is under investigation, but as to which conduct there has been no finding of either probable cause or no probable cause.

(b) Bar Counsel: a member of The Florida Bar appointed to represent The Florida Bar in any proceeding under these rules.

(c) The Board, or the Board of Governors: The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

(d) Complainant or complaining witness: any person who has complained of the conduct of any member of The Florida Bar to any officer or agency of The Florida Bar.

(e) This Court, or the Court: The Supreme Court of the State of Florida.

(f) Court of this State: a state court authorized and established by the Constitution or laws of the State of Florida.

(g) Executive Committee: The Executive Committee of the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

(h) Executive Director: the Executive Director of The Florida Bar.

(i) Probable cause: a finding by an authorized agency that there is cause to believe that a member of The Florida Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action.

(j) Referee: a member of The Florida Bar appointed to conduct proceedings as provided under these rules.

(k) Respondent: a member of The Florida Bar against whom there has been a finding of probable cause.

RULE 11.02: BREACHES OF DISCIPLINE

The following principles, among others expressly adopted by this Court, shall govern the conduct of members of The Florida Bar in their capacity as attorneys and shall govern all proceedings for discipline of such members: A license to practice law confers no vested right to the holder thereof, but is a conditional privilege revokable for cause. The primary purpose of discipline of attorneys is the protection of the public, the legal profession, and the administration of justice, as well as the discipline of members of the Bar. It is the responsibility of this Court to purge the Bar of .those unworthy to practice law in this State and it is the obligation of The Florida Bar and the individual members thereof to give unlimited cooperation and assistance to this Court in the discharge of this responsibility. The Florida Bar is expressly delegated the authority, power and duty to maintain high ethical standards and to take such proceedings as authorized in these rules to insure such standards in the Bar of Florida.

(1) Oath. Violation of the oath taken by an attorney to support the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Florida is ground for disciplinary action. Membership in, alliance with, or support of the Communist Party or any organization, group or party advocating or dedicated to the overthrow of the government by violence or by any means in violation of the Constitution of the United States or Constitution of this State shall be a violation of the oath.

(2) Code of ethics. Violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted by Article X of the Integration Rule is a cause for discipline.

(3) Moral conduct.

(a) Standards. The standards of professional conduct to be observed by members of the Bar are not limited to the observance of rules and avoidance of prohibitive acts, and the enumeration herein of certain categories of misconduct as constituting grounds for discipline shall not be deemed to be all-inclusive nor shall the failure to specify any particular act of misconduct be construed as tolerance thereof. The commission by a lawyer of any act contrary to honesty, justice or good morals, whether the act is committed in the course of his relations as an attorney or otherwise, whether committed within or outside the State of Florida, and whether or not the act is a felony or misdemeanor, constitutes a cause for discipline.

(b) Crime. If the alleged misconduct constitutes a felony or misdemeanor, The Florida Bar may initiate disciplinary action whether or not the accused attorney has been tried, acquitted or convicted in a court for the alleged criminal offense; however, the Board of Governors may, in its discretion, withhold prosecution of disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of criminal proceedings against an accused attorney if the Board believes that prosecution thereof might tend to prejudice the accused attorney in his defense or the State in the prosecution of the criminal proceedings.

(4) Trust funds and fees. Money or other property entrusted to an attorney for a specific purpose is held in trust and must be applied only to that purpose. Money and other property of clients coming into the hands of an attorney are not subject to counterclaim or setoff for attorney fees, and a refusal to account for and deliver over such property and money upon demand shall be deemed a conversion. This is not to preclude the retention of money or other property upon which the lawyer has a valid lien for his services or to preclude the payment of agreed fees from the proceeds of transactions or collections. Controversies as to the amount of fees are not grounds for disciplinary proceedings unless the amount demanded is extortionate or the demand is fraudulent.

(5) Solicitation. The solicitation of professional employment by advertisement, runners, solicitors, investigators, or in any other manner shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action. Payment of compensation shall not be a necessary element of proof of solicitation.

(6) Discipline by foreign jurisdiction. A final adjudication by a court or other authorized agency of another state in a disciplinary proceeding that an attorney licensed to practice in that state is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action shall be considered as conclusive proof of such misconduct in a disciplinary proceeding in this state.

RULE 11.03: DISCIPLINARY AGENCIES

The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall be administered in the manner hereinafter stated. The following entities are hereby designated as agencies of the Supreme Court for this purpose and with the following responsibilities, jurisdiction and powers:

(1) The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar is assigned the responsibility of maintaining high ethical standards among all its members. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar shall supervise and conduct disciplinary proceedings in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(a) Executive Committee. All acts and discretion required of the Board of Governors under these Rules of Discipline may be exercised by its Executive Committee between meetings of the Board of Governors except the entry of final judgment.

(b) Executive Director. All matters to be filed with or served upon the Board of Governors shall be addressed to the Board of Governors and filed with the Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be the custodian of the official records of The Florida Bar.

(2) Grievance committees. There shall be such grievance committees as are herein provided, each of which shall have the authority and jurisdiction required to perform the functions hereinafter assigned to them, and which shall be constituted and appointed as follows:

(a) Circuit grievance committees. There shall be not less than one grievance committee in each judicial circuit of this State, and as many more in each judicial circuit as shall be found desirable by the Board of Governors. Such committees shall be designated as Judicial Circuit Grievance Committees, and in circuits having more than one committee they shall be identified by alphabetical designation in the order of creation such as "First Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee 'A,'" "First Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee 'B,'" and so forth. Such committees shall be continuing bodies notwithstanding changes in membership and they shall have jurisdiction and the power to proceed in all matters properly before them.

(b) Special grievance committees. The Board of Governors may from time to time appoint special grievance committees for the purpose of such investigations as may be assigned in accordance with these rules. Such committees shall continue only until the completion of tasks assigned, and they shall have jurisdiction and power to proceed in all matters so assigned to them.

All provisions concerning grievance committees shall be applicable to special grievance committees except those concerning terms of office and other restrictions thereon as may be imposed by the Board of Governors. Any vacancies occurring in such a committee shall be filled by the Board of Governors, and such changes in members shall not affect the jurisdiction and power of the committee to proceed in all matters properly before it.

(c) Membership, appointment. Each grievance committee shall be appointed by the Board of Governors and shall consist of not less than three members of The Florida Bar.

(d) Terms. The terms of the members shall begin on the first day of July and shall end on the next succeeding 30th day of June or until such time as their successors are appointed and qualified.

(e) Officers. There shall be a chairman designated by the Board of Governors and a vice-chairman and secretary designated by the chairman on each committee.

(f) Oath. Each member of a committee shall subscribe to an oath to fulfill the duties of his office. Such oaths shall be filed with the Executive Director and placed with the official records of The Florida Bar.

(g) Removal. Any member may be removed from his office by the Board of Governors.

(h) Quorum, vote. A majority of a committee but not less than three members shall constitute a quorum. All recommendations of probable cause shall be made by the concurrence of not less than three members.

(3) Referees. The Board of Governors shall annually or as often as necessary recommend members of The Florida Bar to this Court to act as referees in disciplinary proceedings. This Court will certify annually or as often as necessary a panel of those approved to act as referees.

(4) Staff counsel. The Board of Governors may employ staff counsel for The Florida Bar to perform such duties under the direction of the Executive Director as may be assigned.

(5) Bar counsel. The Board of Governors from time to time shall designate a panel of members of The Florida Bar to serve as bar counsel to represent The Florida Bar in such disciplinary proceedings as the Board of Governors may direct. Bar Counsel shall not be a member of the Board of Governors, a grievance committee or a member of the panel of referees.

(6) Jurisdiction and powers. The Board of Governors, grievance committees and referees have such jurisdiction and powers as are necessary to conduct the proper and speedy disposition of any investigation or cause, including the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, to take or cause to be taken the deposition of witnesses and to order the production of books, records or other documentary evidence. Each member of such agencies has power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses in any matter within the jurisdiction of the agency.

(7) Disqualification as trier and attorney for respondent. No member or former member of the Board of Governors and no employee or former employee of The Florida Bar shall represent any party in proceedings provided for in these rules until at least three (3) years from the date of expiration of the term for which he was appointed or elected or subsequent to the date of the termination of his employment; nor shall any member or former member of any grievance committee represent an accused attorney or act as referee in any such proceeding during the term for which he was appointed and for one year thereafter; nor in any case shall a member or former member of a grievance committee or a referee represent an accused attorney or act as bar counsel in any proceeding investigated or heard to any extent before him in such offices.

RULE 11.04: INVESTIGATION BY GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

(1) Purpose

(a) Investigation. The purpose and function of a grievance committee is to conduct investigations of alleged misconduct of a member of The Florida Bar justifying disciplinary action and to determine whether or not to recommend a finding of probable cause by the Board of Governors.

(b) Non-adversary. The proceedings of such grievance committees may be informal and shall not assume the character of an adversary proceeding. The committee shall not be bound by the Rules of Evidence.

(c) No delay for civil or criminal proceedings. An investigation shall not be deferred or suspended without the approval of the Board of Governors even though the accused is made a party of civil litigation, or is a defendant or is acquitted in a criminal action, notwithstanding that either of such proceedings involves the subject matter of the investigation. The acquittal of an accused in a criminal proceeding shall not necessarily be a bar to disciplinary proceedings nor shall the findings, judgment or decree of any court in civil proceedings necessarily be binding in disciplinary proceedings.

(2) The accused. The accused may be required to testify and to produce evidence as any other witness, and when so required he may be accompanied by counsel. The accused has no right to be present or to be heard during an investigation, but before any finding of probable cause is recommended the accused shall be advised in general terms the nature of the conduct which is being investigated, and he shall be given an opportunity to make a statement, personally or by counsel, verbally or in writing, sworn or unsworn, explaining, refuting or admitting the alleged misconduct. The accused shall have no right to present other testimony or evidence, and he shall have no right of confrontation or cross-examination.

(3) Testimony of witnesses; contempt. The accused attorney or any other person who is subpoenaed to appear and give testimony or to produce books, papers or documents, and who refuses to appear or produce such books, papers or documents before the grievance committee or who, having been duly sworn to testify, refuses to answer any proper question, may be cited for contempt of this Court. Any contempt proceedings instituted or prosecuted during the progress of an investigation or trial covered by the confidential rule shall be conducted in a manner consistent with such rule and shall not be made public except under conditions prescribed in such rule.

(4) Complainant or complaining witness. The complainant or complaining witness is not a party to the disciplinary proceeding and shall have no right to be present during the grievance committee proceedings except when called to give evidence and when so called may be accompanied by counsel. Neither the complainant nor his counsel shall have the right of confrontation or cross-examination of the accused or any other witness. Neither unwillingness nor neglect of the complaining witness to cooperate, nor settlement, compromise, nor restitution will excuse the completion of an investigation. The complaining witness shall have no right of appeal.

(5) Record and report of grievance committee

(a) No recommendation of probable cause. If a grievance committee upon termination of its investigation does not recommend a finding of probable cause, the committee shall dispose of its file in the manner directed by the Board of Governors. If the grievance committee has notified the accused of the investigation, then the committee shall notify the accused of the action of the committee. The failure of a grievance committee to recommend probable cause shall not preclude further proceedings.

(b) Recommendation of probable cause. If a grievance committee recommends a finding of probable cause, the committee shall prepare a record of its investigation and a report and file the same with the Executive Director, the report being filed in duplicate. The record and report shall be in such form and with such content as shall be prescribed by the Board of Governors. The Executive Director shall furnish a copy of the report to the accused, and a copy of the record shall be made available to the accused at his expense.

(6) Status reports. The status or disposition of all disciplinary matters considered by the grievance committees shall be reported quarterly to the Board of Governors on a report form prescribed by the Executive Director.

RULE 11.05: REVIEW OF GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE REPORT; FINDING OF PROBABLE CAUSE AND ASSIGNMENT FOR TRIAL

No formal complaint shall be filed by The Florida Bar in disciplinary proceedings against a member of the Bar unless the Board of Governors shall first find that probable cause exists to believe that the accused is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action or unless the accused has been determined or adjudged to be guilty of the commission of a felony. The finding of probable cause shall be made as hereinafter provided.

(1) Review of grievance committee report. The Board of Governors shall review the record and report filed by the grievance committee recommending a finding of probable cause and may (1) find probable cause, (2) find no probable cause, or (3) return the record and report to the grievance committee for further proceedings. If the Board of Governors shall find probable cause or no probable cause, the Executive Director shall notify the accused attorney, the grievance committee and may notify the complaining witness.

(2) Finding of no probable cause. A finding of no probable cause by the Board of Governors shall be final and after such finding no further proceedings shall be had in the matter by The Florida Bar.

(3) Finding of probable cause. The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, sua sponte or on the basis of the report of any regular or special grievance committee or on the recommendation and report of bar counsel, may by majority vote find probable cause and direct the filing of a formal complaint against an attorney as hereinafter provided. Provided, however, that if such finding is not based upon grievance committee investigation or report of bar counsel in pending proceedings against the accused, then before such finding is made the accused shall be advised in general terms the nature of the conduct which is being considered, and he shall be given an opportunity to make a statement, personally or by counsel, verbally or in writing, sworn or unsworn, explaining, refuting or admitting the alleged misconduct. The accused shall have no right to present other testimony or evidence, and he shall have no right of confrontation or cross-examination.

(4) Assignment for trial. The Board of Governors upon making a finding of probable cause shall forthwith appoint a referee to try the cause, the appointment to be from the list approved by the Supreme Court; provided, however, that the Board may defer or withhold prosecution when in the opinion of the Board further proceedings would not be in the interest of the public or The Florida Bar.

RULE 11.06: TRIAL BY REFEREE AND ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

When a finding has been made by the Board of Governors that there is cause to believe that a member of The Florida Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action, and such finding of probable cause has been assigned for trial before a referee, the proceeding thereafter shall be an adversary proceeding in which the accused is the respondent and which shall be conducted as follows:

(1) Venue. The trial shall be held in the county in which an alleged offense occurred, or in the county where the respondent resides or practices law or last practiced law in Florida, whichever shall be designated by the Board of Governors; provided, however, that if the respondent is not a resident of Florida and the alleged offense is not committed in Florida, the trial shall be held in a county designated by the Board of Governors; and provided further that the trial may be held in any county by agreement of the parties.

(2) Style of proceedings. All proceedings instituted by The Florida Bar shall be styled "The Florida Bar, complainant v. (name of respondent), respondent."

(3) Nature of proceedings.

(a) Administrative in character. A disciplinary proceeding is neither civil nor criminal but is a quasijudicial administrative proceeding.

(b) Discovery. Discovery shall be available to the parties in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) Bar counsel

(a) Appointment. Upon assignment of a cause for trial the Board of Governors shall appoint bar counsel to prosecute the cause in the name of The Florida Bar.

(b) Duties. Bar counsel shall make such investigation as in his opinion is necessary and shall prepare and prosecute with utmost diligence any case assigned to him.

(5) Pleadings. Pleadings may be informal and shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) Complaint; consolidation and severance

(i) Filing. The complaint against the respondent shall be filed by bar counsel within thirty (30) days after his appointment, or as soon thereafter as practical.

(ii) Content. The complaint shall set forth the particular act or acts of conduct for which the attorney is sought to be disciplined.

(iii) Joinder of charges and respondents; severance. A complaint may embrace any number of charges against one or more respondents, and charges may be against any one or any number of respondents, all as the Board of Governors may direct; but a severance may be granted by the referee when the ends of justice require it.

(b) Answer and motion. Respondent may answer the complaint, and as a part thereof or by separate motion may challenge only the sufficiency of the complaint and the jurisdiction of the forum. All other defenses shall be incorporated in respondent's answer. All pleadings of the respondent must be filed within twenty (20) days of service of a copy of the complaint upon him.

(c) Reply. If respondent's answer shall contain any new matter or affirmative defense, a reply thereto may be filed within ten (10) days of the date of service of a copy upon bar counsel, but failure to file such a reply shall not prejudice The Florida Bar. All affirmative allegations in the respondent's answer shall be considered as denied by The Florida Bar.

(d) Disposition of motions. Hearings upon motions may be deferred until the final hearing; and whenever heard, rulings thereon may be reserved until termination of the final hearing.

(e) Filing of pleadings

(i) Complaint and answer. The complaint and answer of other appropriate pleading shall be filed in quadruplicate with the Executive Director. If there is more than one attorney charged in the complaint, one additional copy of all pleadings shall be filed for each respondent in excess of one.

(A) Service. Service of the complaint and answer or other appropriate pleading filed by the respondent replying to the complaint shall be served upon the proper person by the Executive Director as elsewhere provided in these rules.

(B) To referee. The Executive Director shall transmit such original pleadings to the referee before trial or at such other time as may be directed by the referee.

(ii) Subsequent pleadings. With reference to all subsequent pleadings and motions, the original shall be filed with the referee and a copy thereof sent to the Executive Director and to each respondent in the proceeding.

(f) Amendment. Pleadings may be amended by order of the referee, and a reasonable time shall be given within which to respond thereto.

(6) Notice of final hearing. The cause may be set down for trial by either party or the referee upon not less than ten (10) days notice. The trial shall be held as soon as possible following the expiration of ten (10) days from the filing of respondent's answer, or if no answer is filed, then from the date when such answer is due.

(7) The respondent. The respondent may be called as a witness by The Florida Bar to make specific and complete disclosure of all matters material to the issues. When the respondent attorney is subpoenaed to appear and give testimony or to produce books, papers or documents, and he refuses to appear or to produce such books, papers or documents, or, having been duly sworn to testify, he refuses to answer any proper question, he may be cited for contempt of this court.

(8) Complaining witness. The complaining witness shall have no rights other than those of any other witness; he has no right to be present during a hearing or trial but he may be called upon to testify and produce evidence as any other witness. Neither unwillingness nor neglect of the complaining witness to cooperate, nor settlement, compromise nor restitution will excuse failure to complete any trial.

(9) Findings and judgment

(a) Record and report of referee. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of a trial before a referee, or as soon thereafter as practical, he shall make a report and enter it as part of the record. The referee's report shall include (1) a finding of fact as to each item of misconduct of which the respondent is charged, (2) recommendations as to whether or not the respondent should be found guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary measures, (3) recommendations as to the disciplinary measures to be applied, (4) a statement of the costs of the proceedings and recommendations as to the manner in which costs should be taxed. The costs shall include court reporters' fees, witness fees and traveling expenses, and reasonable traveling and out of pocket expenses of the referee and bar counsel, if any. Within five (5) days after the entry of findings of the referee, the record of the proceeding shall be filed with the Executive Director. Within five (5) days after such filing, a notice thereof together with a copy of the report of the referee shall be served upon bar counsel and upon the respondent by the Executive Director.

(b) Statement of parties. Bar counsel and respondent may each file a statement in support of or in opposition to the findings and recommendations of the referee. Such statement, if filed, shall be filed with the Executive Director within ten (10) days after service of a copy of the report of the referee or within five (5) days after receipt of such statement from an opposing party, and shall become a part of the record.

(c) Review and entry of judgment

(i) Review. The entire record, which shall consist of the complaint and all other pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits, report of the referee and statement of the respondent in opposition thereto, if any, shall be referred to and read by a reviewing committee consisting of five members of the Board of Governors designated by the President. Such committee shall prepare a written report indicating the concurring and dissenting members of the committee as to the guilt of the respondent and as to its recommendations for disciplinary measures, if any. The report of the reviewing committee shall be considered by the Board; provided, however, that in the event less than four members of the committee concur as to the guilt of the respondent, or in the event the Board shall fail to approve the report of the committee as to the guilt of the respondent, then a quorum of the Board shall review the entire record in such manner as to insure protection of the rights of the accused.

(ii) Judgment. The Board of Governors shall enter an appropriate judgment in accordance with its findings which shall be signed by the President and a copy of which shall be furnished to the respondent. If the respondent is found not guilty, the judgment shall dismiss the complaint. If the respondent is found guilty, the judgment shall set forth the disciplinary measures to be enforced. The costs shall be taxed in the discretion of the Board of Governors.

(iii) Filing. If the respondent is found guilty and the judgment includes public reprimand, suspension from practice or disbarment, the Executive Director shall file the entire record with the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

(10) The record

(a) Reporting of testimony. All hearings at which testimony is presented shall be reported and the transcript of the testimony shall be filed in the cause.

(b) Contents. The record shall include all items properly filed in the cause including pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits in evidence, findings and report of the referee, statements of the parties and the judgment.

(11) Plea of guilty by accused or respondent. At any time during the progress of disciplinary proceedings an accused attorney or respondent may tender a plea of guilty.

(a) Before filing of complaint. If the plea is tendered before filing of a complaint by bar counsel such plea shall be tendered in writing to the Board of Governors. The Board may direct such further investigation as is warranted and formulate charges and serve such charges upon the accused so that he may enter his plea of guilty thereto in writing by filing the same with the Executive Director within ten (10) days thereafter. The Board of Governors shall enter an appropriate disciplinary judgment.

(b) After filing of complaint. If the complaint has been filed against the respondent by bar counsel he may enter a plea of guilty thereto by filing the same in writing with the referee to whom the cause has been assigned for trial and such referee shall take such testimony in relation thereto as he may be advised. The referee will file his report and the Board of Governors, upon review of the report and record received from the referee, will enter appropriate disciplinary judgment.

(c) Unconditional. A plea of guilty shall be unconditional in terms, but shall not preclude appellate review as to disciplinary measures imposed.

(d) Procedure. Except as herein provided all procedure in relation to disposition of the cause on plea of guilty shall be as elsewhere provided in these rules.

(12) Appellate review. The respondent may appeal from a judgment of the Board of Governors. Such appeal shall be made in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

RULE 11.07: DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

The judgments entered finding members of The Florida Bar guilty of misconduct shall include one or more of the following disciplinary measures:

(1) Private reprimand. A private reprimand shall be administered so as to not violate the rule concerning the confidential nature of disciplinary proceedings, and otherwise in the manner prescribed in the judgment. Due notice shall be given to the respondent of any hearing to administer the reprimand. The respondent shall appear personally, if required, and a memorandum of the hearing shall be made a part of the record of the proceeding.

(2) Probation. The respondent may be placed upon probation for a stated period of time of not less than six months nor more than three years. The judgment shall state the conditions of the probation which may include the following: Supervision of all or part of the respondent's work by a member of The Florida Bar; the making of reports to a designated agency; the satisfactory completion of a course of study or a paper on legal ethics approved by the Supreme Court. Failure to observe the conditions of the probation, or a finding of probable cause as to conduct of the respondent committed during the period of probation, shall terminate the probation. In such event, even though such finding of probable cause shall be made after the expiration of the period of probation, the judgment shall be reconsidered and an appropriate judgment shall be entered.

(3) Public reprimand. A public reprimand shall be administered in the manner prescribed in the judgment. Due notice shall be given to the respondent of any hearing set down to administer the reprimand. The respondent shall appear personally if required, and a memorandum of the hearing shall be made a part of the record of the proceeding.

(4) Suspension. The respondent may be suspended from the practice of law for an appropriate time or for a definite period of time and an indefinite period thereafter to be determined by the conditions imposed by the judgment. During such suspension the respondent shall continue to be a member of The Florida Bar but without the privilege of practicing; and upon the expiration of the suspension period and the satisfaction of all conditions accompanying the suspension, the respondent shall become eligible to all of the privileges of membership in The Florida Bar.

(5) Disbarment. A judgment of disbarment without further qualification shall be construed to be disbarment for an indefinite period of time; but the judgment may be stated to be disbarment for an indefinite period of time, or for a definite period of time and an indefinite period thereafter to be determined by the conditions imposed in the judgment. No period of disbarment shall be for less than six months. During disbarment the respondent shall not be a member of The Florida Bar. During any indefinite period of disbarment he may apply for reinstatement in the manner provided by the rule on reinstatement.

RULE 11.08: DISCIPLINE UPON CONVICTION

(1) Determination or judgment of guilt. Determination or judgment of guilt of a member of The Florida Bar by a court of competent jurisdiction upon trial or plea of any crime or offense that is a felony under the laws of this State, or under the laws under which any other court making such determination or entering such judgment exercises its jurisdiction, shall be conclusive proof of the guilt of the offense charged for the purposes of these rules. Upon such determination or entry of such judgment of guilt by any court of this State, the judge or the clerk thereof shall transmit a certified copy of such determination or judgment to the Clerk of this Court and to the Executive Director of The Florida Bar.

(2) Suspension by judgment (Florida). If such judgment of guilt is entered by a court of the State of Florida, the convicted attorney shall stand suspended as a member of The Florida Bar on the 11th day following the entry of the judgment unless he shall before that day file a petition with the Supreme Court to modify or terminate such suspension as elsewhere provided. If such petition is filed on or before the 10th day following the entry of the judgment, the suspension will be thereby deferred until entry of an order upon the petition.

(a) Petition to modify or terminate suspension. At any time after the entry of a judgment of guilt, the convicted attorney may file a petition with the Supreme Court to modify or terminate such suspension and shall serve a copy thereof upon the Executive Director. An opportunity to respond to the petition and appear at any hearing on the petition shall be afforded to The Florida Bar. If such petition is filed after the tenth day following the entry of judgment of guilt, the suspension shall remain in effect pending disposition of the petition. Modification or termination of suspension shall be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

(b) Continuation of suspension until final disposition. If an appeal is taken by the convicted attorney from the judgment of the trial court in the criminal proceeding, and on review the cause is remanded for further proceedings, the suspension shall remain in effect until the final disposition of the criminal cause unless modified or terminated by the Supreme Court as elsewhere provided.

(c) Termination of suspension. Such suspension shall continue until final disposition of the criminal cause unless sooner terminated by order of the Supreme Court as elsewhere provided. A final disposition of the criminal cause resulting in acquittal will terminate the suspension. A final termination of the criminal cause resulting in a determination or judgment of guilt shall continue the suspension until expiration of all periods for appeal and rehearing, and until after termination of disciplinary proceedings by The Florida Bar as elsewhere provided.

(3) Suspension by Supreme Court. If any such determination or judgment of guilt is entered by any court other than a court of the State of Florida, The Florida Bar may petition this Court for an order suspending the convicted attorney from the practice of law. Service of a copy of such petition shall be effected by the Clerk of this Court upon the convicted attorney who may within ten days, or such further time as this Court may allow, file a response thereto and serve a copy thereof upon the Executive Director. This Court shall direct such further proceedings as may be appropriate.

(4) Disciplinary judgment after conviction. If a determination or judgment of guilt of a felony is entered against a member of The Florida Bar and becomes final without appeal or by affirmance on appeal, such judgment shall be conclusive proof of the guilt of the offense charged. The Executive Director shall serve upon the attorney named in such determination or judgment a notice to show cause, if any there be, why appropriate disciplinary judgment should not be entered by the Board of Governors. The respondent attorney may, within 15 days, file his return with the Executive Director. The Board of Governors shall consider such return and take appropriate action and thereafter enter such disciplinary judgment as may be warranted.

(5) Appellate review. The respondent attorney may appeal from a judgment of the Board of Governors in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

RULE 11.09: RESIGNATION PENDING DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

An attorney may resign from The Florida Bar during the progress of disciplinary proceedings against him in the following manner.

(1) Definition. If a disciplinary agency is investigating the conduct of an attorney, or if such an agency has recommended probable cause, then disciplinary proceedings shall be deemed to be pending and the resignation shall be made pursuant to this rule.

(2) Petition for leave to resign. The petition for leave to resign shall be filed with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar and shall contain a statement of all past and pending disciplinary actions and criminal proceedings against the petitioner. Such statements shall describe the charges made or under investigation for professional misconduct, results of past proceedings and the status of pending investigations and proceedings. Any petition deemed by the Board of Governors to be incomplete or insufficient may in the discretion of the Board be returned for such amendment as may be required.

(3) Judgment. The Board of Governors shall consider the petition for leave to resign and the charges against the accused. If it has been shown by the petitioner in a proper and competent manner that the public interest will not be adversely affected by the granting of the petition, and that such will not adversely affect the purity of the courts nor hinder the administration of justice nor the confidence of the public in the legal profession, the Board of Governors shall enter an appropriate judgment granting leave to resign; otherwise, the petition shall be denied. If the judgment grants to the petitioner leave to resign, the judgment may require that the resignation be subject to appropriate conditions. A copy of the judgment shall be furnished to the petitioner; and if the judgment grants leave to resign a certified copy thereof, together with the supporting record, shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court. A judgment granting leave to resign shall become final and effective when approved by order of the Supreme Court.

(4) Appellate review. The petitioner may appeal from the judgment in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(5) Delay of disciplinary proceedings. The filing of a petition for leave to resign pending disciplinary proceedings shall not stay the progress of the disciplinary proceedings without the approval of the Board of Governors.

RULE 11.10: REINSTATEMENT

An attorney who has been disbarred other than by permanent disbarment, or whose resignation pending disciplinary proceedings has been accepted under conditions which allow reinstatement, may be reinstated to membership in The Florida Bar pursuant to this rule. The proceedings under this rule are not applicable to suspension for non-payment of dues.

(1) Petitions: form, contents, fingerprints

(a) Filing. The original petition for reinstatement and three copies thereof shall be in writing, verified by the petitioner, addressed to the Board of Governors and filed with the Executive Director at the office of The Florida Bar in Tallahassee. With the filing of his petition the petitioner shall furnish two sets of his fingerprints on record cards furnished by The Florida Bar for this purpose. One copy of the petition shall be promptly filed by the Executive Director with the Clerk of this Court.

(b) Form and exhibits. The petition shall be in such form and shall be accompanied by such exhibits as the Board of Governors shall prescribe. The information required concerning the petitioner may include in the discretion of the Board of Governors, any or all of the following matters in addition to such other matters as may be reasonably required to determine the fitness of the petitioner to resume the practice of law: criminal and civil judgments; disciplinary judgments; copies of income tax returns together with consents to secure original returns; occupation during disbarment and information in connection therewith; financial statements; statement of restitution of funds which were the subject matter of disciplinary proceedings.

(2) Deposit for costs. The petition shall be accompanied by a deposit in such amount as the Board of Governors shall prescribe to insure payment of reasonable costs of the proceeding. Such costs in the discretion of the Board of Governors may include court reporters' fees, witness fees and traveling expense, and reasonable traveling expense and out of pocket costs of the referee or investigative committee and attorneys for The Florida Bar.

(3) Reference of petition for hearing. The Board of Governors shall refer the petition for reinstatement for investigation. Such investigation may be by means of formal hearing and findings or otherwise. Such reference shall be in the discretion of the Board of Governors to a referee, a grievance committee of the county where the petitioner resides, or formerly resided, or to a reinstatement committee to be appointed by the Board of Governors. Provided, however, that no such reference shall be made until evidence is submitted showing that all costs assessed against the petitioner in all disciplinary proceedings have been paid.

(4) Attorney for the Bar. When a petition for reinstatement is filed, the Board of Governors may appoint, or may request any local Bar Association to appoint, from the active members of The Florida Bar, one or more attorneys to represent The Florida Bar in the proceeding. The duties of such attorneys shall be to appear at the hearings and to prepare and present to said committee or referee evidence which, in the opinion of the committee or referee or such attorneys, should be considered in passing upon the petition.

(5) Procedure. The referee or committee to which the petition for reinstatement is referred shall conduct the investigation as a trial in the same manner, to the extent practical, as proceedings are conducted under the rule concerning trials. The matter to be investigated and decided shall be the fitness of the petitioner to resume the practice of law.

(6) Hearing, notice, evidence

(a) Notice. The committee or referee to whom the petition for reinstatement is referred shall fix a time and place for hearing, and notice thereof shall be given at least ten days prior to the hearing to the petitioner, to attorneys representing The Florida Bar, and to such other persons as may be designated by any member of the committee or the referee to which the petition is referred.

(b) Appearances. Any of said persons to whom notice is given, any other interested person, or any local bar association, may appear before said committee in support of or in opposition to the petition at any time or times fixed for hearings thereon.

(c) Failure of petitioner to be examined. For the failure of the petitioner to submit to examination as a witness pursuant to notice given, the Board of Governors shall dismiss the petition for reinstatement unless good cause is shown for such failure.

(7) Prompt hearing; report. The committee or referee to which a petition for reinstatement has been referred by the Board of Governors shall proceed to a prompt hearing, at the conclusion of which it shall make and transmit to the Board of Governors a report which shall include the findings of fact and a recommendation as to whether or not the petitioner is qualified to resume the practice of law. Such report shall be in the form prescribed by the Board of Governors.

(8) Notice of reinstatement committee's or referee's report. When the report of the committee or referee is received at the office of the Executive Director in Tallahassee, a copy thereof shall be sent by the Executive Director to the petitioner and to the members of The Florida Bar representing the Bar and to each local bar association appearing in the proceeding. A copy of the letter of transmittal, bearing the date of mailing and the name of the person mailing the same, shall be retained in the office of The Florida Bar and shall be prima-facie evidence of the mailing thereof upon said date.

(9) Statement in opposition or support. At any time within ten days after mailing of the notice of report the petitioner or the member of The Florida Bar representing the Bar or any local bar association may file in the office of The Florida Bar in Tallahassee an original and three copies of a typewritten statement in support of or in opposition to the report.

(10) Judgment by Board of Governors. After filing of said report, the Board of Governors shall review the petition, the findings and recommendations of the committee or referee and the record before such committee or referee and shall enter an appropriate judgment. If the petitioner is found unfit to resume the practice of law, the petition shall be dismissed. If the petitioner is found fit to resume the practice of law, the judgment shall reinstate him in The Florida Bar; provided, however, that the judgment may make such reinstatement conditional upon the payment of all or parts of the costs of the proceeding, and upon the making of partial or complete restitution to parties harmed by the petitioner's misconduct which led to the termination of his membership in The Florida Bar; and further provided, however, that if the petitioner has been removed from membership in The Florida Bar for more than ten (10) years, the reinstatement may be conditioned upon the furnishing of such proof of competency as may be required by the judgment in the discretion of the Board of Governors, which proof may include certification by the Florida Board of Bar Examiners of the successful completion of all examinations for admission to The Florida Bar subsequent to the entry of the judgment. A copy of the judgment shall be forthwith served upon the petitioner.

(11) Appellate review. The petitioner may appeal from the judgment in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(12) Successive petitions. No petition for reinstatement shall be filed within two years following an adverse judgment upon a petition for reinstatement filed by or on behalf of the same person.

RULE 11.11: APPELLATE REVIEW

All judgments entered in proceedings under these Rules of Discipline shall be subject to appeal by petition to the Supreme Court in the following manner:

(1) Appellant. Any party to a proceeding other than The Florida Bar may appeal from an order or judgment entered under these rules; provided, however, the respondent and The Florida Bar may appeal from an order entered in contempt proceedings.

(2) Appointment of bar counsel. Within 30 days after a copy of a petition for review is filed with the Executive Director, the Board of Governors shall appoint bar counsel to represent The Florida Bar in the appeal.

(3) Procedure. Appeals shall be only in accordance with the following procedure.

(a) Petition for review. The appeal shall be commenced by filing a petition for review with the Supreme Court and two copies thereof with the Executive Director within 30 days after entry of judgment or order to be reviewed. If the appeal is from a circuit court, then within such 30 days another copy of the petition shall be filed with the clerk of such court. If the State of Florida is the appellee, then within such 30 days another copy of the petition shall be served upon the state attorney. The filing of the petition and copies is jurisdictional, and failure to file the petition and such copies within such 30-day period shall preclude an appeal.

(b) Record on appeal. If the appeal is from a judgment of the Board of Governors, the Executive Director shall forward the entire record to the Supreme Court within ten days after the filing with the Executive Director of a copy of the petition for review. If the appeal is from a circuit court, the clerk of the court shall forward the entire record to the Supreme Court within ten days after the filing with such clerk of a copy of the petition for review, or within ten days after the filing of the transcript of testimony, whichever shall last occur.

(c) Briefs. The petitioner shall file a brief within 30 days after the filing of the record with the Supreme Court; and if not filed the appeal shall be dismissed. A reply brief may be filed within 20 days after service of a copy of petitioner's brief.

(d) Oral argument. Oral argument shall be allowed in all appeals and upon expiration of the time for filing the reply brief the Clerk shall assign the cause for oral argument.

(e) Burden upon appellant. Upon review the burden shall be upon the appellant to show wherein the judgment from which the appeal is taken is erroneous, unlawful or unjustified.

(f) Judgment of Supreme Court. After review the Supreme Court shall enter an appropriate order or judgment. If no appeal is taken from a judgment or order entered under these rules, and if a certified copy thereof has been filed with the Court, the Court shall enter a judgment thereon.

(4) Precedence of proceedings. Appeals in disciplinary proceedings shall take precedence over all other civil causes in the Supreme Court.

(5) Extraordinary writs. All applications for extraordinary writs which are concerned with disciplinary proceedings under these rules of discipline shall be made to the Supreme Court.

(6) Florida Appellate Rules. To the extent necessary to implement this rule and if not inconsistent herewith, the Florida Appellate Rules shall be applicable to appeals in disciplinary proceedings.

RULE 11.12: CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS

All matters including files, preliminary investigation reports, inter-office memoranda, records of investigations and the records in trials and other proceedings under these Rules, excepting only those matters in connection with proceedings initiated in circuit courts, are all property of The Florida Bar. All of such matters having to do with (1) investigation and other proceedings to determine probable cause, (2) trials upon a finding of probable cause, and (3) resignations pending disciplinary proceedings, shall be confidential to all parties participating therein or having knowledge thereof except as otherwise provided in these rules. All of such persons shall be admonished by the agency before whom they appear to observe the confidential nature of such proceedings. Provided, however, that the confidential nature of such proceedings is subject to the following exceptions:

(1) Public record. Those parts of proceedings prior to trial which are required to be served upon an accused, and the record of the proceeding as elsewhere defined, shall become public information in the following instances:

(a) Request of accused or respondent. If the accused or respondent shall file in the proceeding a request in writing that the proceedings be made public information.

(b) Circuit court. If the proceeding is in a circuit court; but proceedings in contempt of confidential proceeding shall preserve the confidentiality of the disciplinary proceeding as elsewhere provided.

(c) Judgment of suspension or disbarment. Upon entry of a judgment of suspension from practice or disbarment.

(d) Appellate review. Upon the filing of an appeal in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(2) Resignation pending disciplinary proceedings. If an accused or respondent shall resign pending disciplinary proceedings which are confidential, such proceedings shall remain confidential except as follows: If the resigned member of The Florida Bar shall apply for readmission to The Florida Bar or for admission to the bar of any other jurisdiction, the Florida Board of Bar Examiners and the comparable body having jurisdiction of an application for admission in the other jurisdiction shall be given access to the files of The Florida Bar for the purpose of evaluating the applicant's competency to practice law.

(3) Evidence of crime. The confidential nature of disciplinary proceedings and the oath given to witnesses therein shall not proscribe the filing of informations and the giving of testimony before grand juries by individuals having knowledge of facts indicating the commission of crime if such knowledge was obtained independently of disciplinary proceedings.

(4) Information concerning status of proceeding. No information concerning the pendency or status of an investigation or trial or other confidential matter shall be given unless and until a judgment of the Board of Governors is filed with the Clerk of this Court or unless authorized by the Board of Governors; provided, however, that the chairman of a grievance committee may advise a circuit judge in confidence of the status of proceedings as to a particular accused or respondent.

RULE 11.13: ADDITIONAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

(1) Time is directory. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules of Discipline, the time intervals required are directory only and are not jurisdictional. Failure to observe such directory intervals may result in contempt of the agency having jurisdiction or of the Supreme Court, but will not prejudice the offending party except where so provided.

(2) Notice in lieu of process. Every member of The Florida Bar is within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and its agencies under these rules, and service of process is not required to obtain jurisdiction over respondents in disciplinary proceedings; but due process requires the giving of reasonable notice and such shall be effective by the service of the complaint upon the respondent by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail return receipt requested to the last known address of the respondent according to the records of The Florida Bar or such later address as may be known to the person effecting the service.

(3) Subpoenas. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence other than before a circuit court shall be issued as follows:

(a) Referees. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and production of documentary evidence before a referee shall be issued by the referee and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(b) Grievance Committees. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence before a grievance committee may be issued by any member of a grievance committee in pursuance of an investigation authorized by the committee. Such subpoenas may be served by any member of such committee or in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(c) Reinstatement committees. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence before a reinstatement committee shall be issued by the chairman, vice-chairman or secretary of such committee, and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(d) Board of Governors. Subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence before the Board of Governors shall be issued by the Executive Director under the seal of The Florida Bar, and shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(e) Confidential proceedings. If the proceeding is confidential a subpoena shall not name the accused or respondent but shall style the proceeding as "Confidential proceeding by The Florida Bar under the Rules of Discipline."

(f) Contempt. Any person who without adequate excuse fails to obey such a subpoena served upon him may be cited for contempt of this court in the manner provided by this rule.

(4) Oath of witnesses. Every witness in every proceeding under these rules shall be sworn to tell the truth and not to disclose the existence of the proceeding nor the identity of the accused or respondent until the proceeding is no longer confidential under these rules. Violation of the oath shall be an act of contempt of this Court.

(5) Contempt. If an agency other than a circuit court shall find that a person is in contempt under these rules, such person shall be cited for contempt in the following manner:

(a) Petition for rule to show cause. The agency shall direct bar counsel, or chairman of the agency if there is no bar counsel serving in the matter in which the contempt occurs, to present to the circuit court having jurisdiction a petition for the issuance of a rule to show cause why the person so accused should not be held in contempt of this Court.

(b) Confidentiality. If the proceeding in which the contempt occurs is a confidential proceeding, the confidentiality shall be preserved in the contempt proceeding in the following manner: Pleadings shall be styled "Proceeding by The Florida Bar under the Rules of Discipline, The Florida Bar v. (name of accused in contempt proceeding)." No pleadings or matters shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court; instead all such matters shall be presented to the circuit judge hearing the same and shall be returned to the agency upon completion of the contempt proceedings and then filed with the Executive Director. Docket entries and sentences or judgments in contempt proceedings, if entered in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, shall be styled as provided for pleadings and shall make no references to the accused or the respondent in the disciplinary proceeding in which the contempt occurred. If the name of the accused or respondent shall become of public record, the court having jurisdiction in the contempt proceeding shall take appropriate steps to preserve the confidentiality of the disciplinary proceedings, and shall consider whether or not the person responsible for the making of the name of the accused or respondent of public record is also guilty of contempt under these Rules of Discipline.

(c) Appellate review. A judgment in such contempt proceedings may be appealed by either party in the manner provided in the rule on appellate review, except that a copy of the petition for appeal shall not be filed with the clerk of the circuit court, and the record shall be forwarded by the judge or the agency possessing the same.

RULE 11.14: DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS IN CIRCUIT COURTS

(1) Disciplinary matters in district courts of appeal and circuit court. Whenever it shall be made known to any of the judges of the district courts of appeal or any judge of a circuit court in this state that a member of The Florida Bar practicing in any of the courts of his district or judicial circuit has been guilty of any unprofessional act as defined by this Integration Rule or the code of ethics adopted by this Court, such judge may direct the state attorney for the circuit in which such attorney shall have his office to make in writing a motion in the name of the State of Florida to discipline such attorney setting forth in the motion the particular act or acts of conduct for which the attorney is sought to be disciplined.

(2) Copy served upon accused. Upon the filing of such motion a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused attorney and he shall within ten (10) days after the service thereof, file his answer thereto. A copy of such motion shall be filed with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar at the time of service upon the accused attorney.

(3) Trial before a circuit judge. Upon the filing of the answer the presiding judge of the judicial circuit in which the accused attorney's office is located shall designate one of the judges thereof to try and determine said cause. Such judge shall conduct a hearing thereon and shall hear the evidence to be offered by the State of Florida and the accused. A representative or representatives of The Florida Bar, appointed by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, shall have the right to be present and to observe the proceedings. Upon the conclusion of said hearing, said judge shall enter such judgment of dismissal, reprimand, probation, suspension or disbarment as shall be appropriate to the circumstances.

The parties shall be entitled to compulsory process to force the attendance of any witnesses.

(4) Judgment filed in Supreme Court. If the judgment be one of public reprimand, suspension or disbarment, three certified copies of the same shall be forthwith filed by the clerk of the trial court with the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Florida. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall retain one copy for his records, deliver to the Executive Director of The Florida Bar one copy of said judgment for his official records, and shall forthwith serve the third copy upon the accused attorney.

(5) Petition for appellate review. The respondent may appeal from a judgment entered by a circuit court. Such appeal shall be made in the manner provided by the rule on appellate review.

(6) Duty to expedite proceedings. It shall be the duty of the state attorney who is directed to file said motion to file the same promptly and to dispose of said controversy expeditiously.

(7) Concurrent jurisdiction of The Florida Bar. The jurisdiction of the district courts of appeal and circuit courts created by this rule and the procedure herein outlined shall be concurrent with that of The Florida Bar under the preceding portions of these Rules of Discipline. The forum first asserting jurisdiction in a disciplinary matter shall retain the same to the exclusion of the other until the final determination of the cause.

(8) Reinstatement. Reinstatement of attorneys disbarred by proceedings in circuit courts shall be governed by the rule on reinstatement.

RULE 11.15: STATUTES SUPERSEDED

These Rules of Discipline shall supersede Sections 454.24, 454.25, 454.26, 454.27, 454.28, 454.29 and such parts of Sections 454.18, 454.30, 454.31 and 454.32, Florida Statutes 1959, as are in conflict herewith.

It is, therefore, ordered that the amendment set forth above shall take effect at 12:01 a.m. January 1, 1962, and shall govern all disciplinary procedures instituted on and after that date.

Article XII
THE FLORIDA BAR FOUNDATION

The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar may establish The Florida Bar Foundation, with such organization, purposes and powers as this Court may approve.

(d) If no response or defense is filed within the time permitted, the allegations of the petition shall be taken as true for purposes of that action. The Court will then, upon its motion or upon motion of any party, decide the case upon its merits, granting such relief and issuing such order as might be appropriate; or it may refer the petition for further proceedings according to this Rule.

If the objector desires, he may file a brief in support of his objections at the time his objections are filed. Any other party may file a brief within twenty days after service of objector's brief. Oral argument will be allowed at the Court's discretion and will be governed by the provisions of Florida Appellate Rules, Rule 3.10.

7. Upon the expiration of the time to file objections to the Referee's Report, the Court shall review the Report of the Referee, together with any briefs or objections filed in support of or opposition to such report. After review, the Court shall make a finding of guilt or innocence on the question of contempt, and shall enter an appropriate order or judgment, whether of contempt, injunction or otherwise, which shall seem reasonably calculated to insure the protection of the public against any further unlawful conduct, whether by the respondent to said cause or by other parties.

8. Nothing set forth in this Rule shall be construed to prohibit or limit the right of the Court, upon proper application, to issue a preliminary or temporary injunction, or at any stage of the proceedings, to enter any such order as to the Court may seem proper when public harm or the possibility thereof is made apparent to the Court, in order that such harm may be summarily prevented or speedily enjoined.

Article XV
LAWYER REFERENCE SERVICES

An application by a local bar association or other group of lawyers to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar for authority to operate a lawyer reference service shall be filed with the Executive Director in writing and shall contain:

(a) The proposed By-Laws or Rules and Regulations which will govern the proposed reference service,

(b) The number of lawyers who will participate in the service,

(c) A statement as to the number of lawyers in the area, and

(d) An estimate of the condition that evidences a need for such services in the area.

The Board of Governors may approve or disapprove the application to operate a lawyer reference service or it may call for additional information upon which to base its decision.

Authority to conduct a lawyer reference service may be granted to an association or group of lawyers conducting such a service which is truly representative of the entire profession in the area of the service, which is of such size and number that the anonymity of the individual lawyers is secured and the identity of the individual members is submerged in the group, and the membership of which is open to all members of the profession on an equal basis. Such authority may be granted where a public need for a lawyers' reference service has been demonstrated and where it appears that the possibility of benefits to any individual lawyer is so indirect and remote that such possibility of benefits cannot reasonably be said to be the inspiration and motive for the operation of the service.

Article XVII

1. Pursuant to the authority granted by Article XVII of the Integration Rule of The Florida Bar, the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar hereby establishes a separate fund designated "Clients' Security Fund of The Florida Bar," to be administered as hereinafter provided for. No applicant shall have any contractual, statutory, legal or equitable right to a grant of monetary relief from the Fund.

2. Definitions

For this by-law the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Applicant" means a person or persons or any legal entity that has filed an application with The Florida Bar for a grant of monetary relief from the Fund based on a claim that he, she or it has suffered a loss.

(b) "The Bar" means The Florida Bar.

(c) "The Board" means the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

(d) "The Executive Director" means the Executive Director of The Florida Bar.

(e) "The Court" means the Supreme Court of Florida.

(f) "The Fund" means the Clients' Security Fund of The Florida Bar; and

(g) "Loss" means a loss suffered by a client by reason of misappropriation, embezzlement or other wrongful taking or conversion by one or more members of The Florida Bar of money or other property of such client that came into the possession or control of said member or members of The Florida Bar under an attorney and client relationship, provided, however, that such relationship was not for a wrongful purpose and the client was not guilty of any bad faith in putting the money or other property in possession or control of the member or members of The Florida Bar.

3. Creation and Administration of Fund Resources:

(a) The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar shall allocate to the Fund from the annual dues of the members of the Bar not more than $10.00 per member per annum.

(b) The Board is authorized to accept for the Fund any contributions or gifts offered to it for use in furtherance of the purposes of the Fund.

(c) The Executive Director in his capacity as Treasurer of The Florida

Bar is hereby charged with the administrative functions pertaining to receiving, segregating, safekeeping, disbursing and accounting for all Fund assets, subject to instructions of the Board.

(d) The Fund shall be administered by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

4. Special Rules:

(a) The Board shall not honor any request for monetary relief:

(1) until a final judgment of discipline shall have been entered adjudging the member or members of The Florida Bar guilty of misconduct which occasioned the loss sought to be reimbursed and determining the amount of loss due to such misconduct.

(2) Unless the application is based on a loss sustained after December 31, 1966, and the loss resulted solely and directly from an attorney and client relationship.

(b) The Board may as a condition precedent to the grant of monetary relief require that the applicant reduce said loss to a final judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction against the member or members of The Florida Bar responsible for said loss.

5. Form of Application for Relief:

The Board shall as soon as practicable prescribe an appropriate form for use by applicants for making applications for monetary relief.

6. Board Duties:

The Board shall investigate every application for relief which appears to meet the requirements of this by-law and shall consider each such application. If, in the judgment of the Board, a loss as hereinabove defined has been sustained by the applicant, and if the circumstances warrant relief, then, after taking into consideration the resources of the Fund and the priority to be assigned to such application in the discretion of the Board, the Board may, in the exercise of its discretion, as a matter of grace and not of right, grant monetary relief. Such monetary relief shall be in such an amount as the Board may determine and shall be payable in such a manner and upon such conditions and terms as the Board shall prescribe.

7. Assignments and Salvage:

(a) When the Board grants such monetary relief, it shall obtain from the applicant an assignment, which shall run in favor of The Florida Bar, of the subrogation rights or of the unsatisfied portion of the judgment or decree obtained by the client against the member or members of The Florida Bar, or the fractional part of such unsatisfied portion of said judgment or decree as the total amount of the monetary relief granted bears to the total unsatisfied portion of the judgment or decree. All sums collected on any such subrogation rights, judgment or decree, or fractional interest therein, shall be placed in and become a part of said Fund.

(b) The Board of Governors shall exert every reasonable effort to recover from the offending lawyer or lawyers such amounts as shall have been paid from the Fund to an applicant.

OATH OF ADMISSION

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on January 27, 1941*)

"The general principles which should ever control the lawyer in the practice of his profession are clearly set forth in the following Oath of Admission to the Bar, which they are sworn on admission to obey and for the wilful violation of which disbarment may be had.

"I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR:

"I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Florida.

"I will maintain the respect due to Courts of Justice and judicial officers;

"I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceeding which shall appear to me to be unjust, nor any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;

"I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the Judge or jury by any artifice or false statement of fact or law;

"I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business except from him or with his knowledge and approval;

"I will abstain from all offensive personalities and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;

"I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed, or delay any man's cause for lucre or malice. So Help Me God."

CANONS OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on December 6, 1955, and as further amended November 17, 1958, March 25, 1964, and May 11, 1966.)

1. The Duty of the Lawyer to the Courts.

It is the duty of the lawyer to maintain towards the Courts a respectful attitude, not for the sake of the temporary incumbent of the judicial office, but for the maintenance of its supreme importance. Judges, not being wholly free to defend themselves, are peculiarly entitled to receive the support of the Bar against unjust criticism and clamor. Whenever there is proper ground for serious complaint of a judicial officer, it is the right and duty of the lawyer to submit his grievances to the proper authorities. In such cases, but not otherwise, such charges should be encouraged and the person making them should be protected.

2. The Selection of Judges.

It is the duty of the Bar to endeavor to prevent political considerations from outweighing judicial fitness in the selections of Judges. It should protest earnestly and actively against the appointment or election of those who are unsuitable for the Bench; and it should strive to have elevated thereto only those willing to forego other employments, whether of a business, political or other character, which may embarrass their free and fair consideration of questions before them for decision. The aspiration of lawyers for judicial position should be governed by an impartial estimate of their ability to add honor to the office and not by a desire for the distinction the position may bring to themselves. When a lawyer seeks election to a judicial office he shall be bound by the same rules of political ethics and conduct which bind judges who seek election or re-election to a judicial office. See Canons of Ethics Governing Judges, Rule A, Canons 28 and 30.

3. Attempts to Exert Personal Influence on the Court.

Marked attention and unusual hospitality on the part of a lawyer to a Judge, uncalled for by the personal relations of the parties, subject both the Judge and the lawyer to misconstructions of motive and should be avoided. A lawyer should not communicate or argue privately with the Judge as to the merits of a pending cause, and he deserves rebuke and denunciation for any device or attempt to gain from a Judge special personal consideration or favor. A self-respecting independence in the discharge of professional duty, without denial or diminution of the courtesy and respect due the Judge's station, the only proper foundation for cordial personal and official relations between Bench and Bar.

4. When Counsel for an Indigent Prisoner.

A lawyer assigned as counsel for an indigent prisoner ought not to ask to be excused for any trivial reason, and should always exert his best efforts in his behalf.

5. The Defense or Prosecution of Those Accused of Crime.

It is the right of the lawyer to undertake the defense of a person accused of crime, regardless of his personal opinion as to the guilt of the accused; otherwise innocent persons, victims only of suspicious circumstances, might be denied proper defense. Having undertaken such defense, the lawyer is bound, by all fair and honorable means, to present every defense that the law of the land permits, to the end that no person may be deprived of life or liberty but by due process of law.

The primary duty of a lawyer engaged in public prosecution is not to convict, but to see that justice is done. The suppression of facts or the secreting of witnesses capable of establishing the innocence of the accused is highly reprehensible.

6. Adverse Influences and Conflicting Interests.

It is the duty of a lawyer at the time of retainer to disclose to the client all the circumstances of his relations to the parties, and any interest in or connection with the controversy, which might influence the client in the selection of counsel.

It is unprofessional to represent conflicting interests, except by express consent of all concerned given after a full disclosure of the facts. Within the meaning of this canon, a lawyer represents conflicting interests when, in behalf of one client, it is his duty to contend for that which duty to another client requires him to oppose.

The obligation to represent the client with undivided fidelity and not to divulge his secrets or confidences forbids also the subsequent acceptance of retainers or employment from others in matters adversely affecting any interest of the client with respect to which confidence has been reposed.

7. Professional Colleagues and Conflicts of Opinion.

A client's proffer of assistance of additional counsel should not be regarded as evidence of want of confidence, but the matter should be left to the determination of the client. A lawyer should decline association as colleague if it is objectionable to the original counsel, but if the lawyer first retained is relieved, another may come into the case.

When lawyers jointly associated in a cause cannot agree as to any matter vital to the interest of the client, the conflict of opinion should be frankly stated to him for his final determination. His decision should be accepted unless the nature of the difference makes it impracticable for the lawyer whose judgment has been overruled to co-operate effectively. In this event it is his duty to ask the client to relieve him.

Efforts, direct or indirect, in any way to encroach upon the professional employment of another lawyer, are unworthy of those who should be brethren at the Bar; but nevertheless, it is the right of any lawyer, without fear or favor, to give proper advice to those seeking relief against unfaithful or neglectful counsel, generally after communication with the lawyer of whom the complaint is made.

8. Advising Upon the Merits of a Client's Cause.

A lawyer should endeavor to obtain full knowledge of his client's cause before advising thereon, and he is bound to give a candid opinion of the merits and probable result of pending or contemplated litigation. The miscarriages to which justice is subject, by reason of surprises and disappointments in evidence and witnesses, and through mistakes of juries and errors of Courts, even though only occasional, admonish lawyers to beware of bold and confident assurances to clients, especially where the employment may depend upon such assurance. Whenever the controversy will admit of fair judgment, the client should be advised to avoid or to end the litigation.

9. Negotiations With Opposite Party.

A lawyer should not in any way communicate upon the subject of controversy with a party represented by counsel; much less should he undertake to negotiate or compromise the matter with him, but should deal only with his counsel. It is incumbent upon the lawyer most particularly to avoid everything that may tend to mislead a party not represented by counsel, and he should not undertake to advise him as to the law.

10. Acquiring Interest in Litigation.

The lawyer should not purchase any interest in the subject matter of the litigation which he is conducting.

11. Dealing With Trust Property.

The lawyers should refrain from any action whereby for his personal benefit or gain he abuses or takes advantage of the confidence reposed in him by his client.

Money of the client or collected for the client or other trust property coming into the possession of the lawyer should be reported and accounted for promptly, and should not under any circumstances be commingled with his own or be used by him.

12. Fixing the Amount of the Fee.

In fixing fees, lawyers should avoid charges which overestimate their advice and services, as well as those which undervalue them. A client's ability to pay cannot justify a charge in excess of the value of the service, though his poverty may require a less charge, or even none at all. The reasonable requests of brother lawyers, and of their widows and orphans without ample means, should receive special and kindly consideration.

In determining the amount of the fee, it is proper to consider: (1) the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved and the skill requisite properly to conduct the cause; (2) whether the acceptance of employment in the particular case will preclude the lawyer's appearance for others in cases likely to arise out of the transaction, and in which there is a reasonable expectation that otherwise he would be employed, or will involve the loss of other employment while employed in the particular case or antagonisms with other clients; (3) the customary charges of the Bar for similar services; (4) the amount involved in the controversy and the benefits resulting to the client from the services; (5) the contingency or the certainty of the compensation; and (6) the character of the employment, whether casual or for an established and constant client. No one of these considerations in itself is controlling. They are mere guides in ascertaining the real value of the service.

In determining the customary charges of the Bar for similar services, it is proper for a lawyer to consider a schedule of minimum fees adopted by a Bar Association, but no lawyer should permit himself to be controlled thereby or to follow it as his sole guide in determining the amount of his fee.

In fixing fees it should never be forgotten that the profession is a branch of the administration of justice and not a mere money-getting trade.

13. Contingent Fees.

A contract for a contingent fee, where sanctioned by law, should be reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, including the risk and uncertainty of the compensation, but should always be subject to the supervision of a court, as to its reasonableness.

14. Suing a Client for a Fee.

Controversies with clients concerning compensation are to be avoided by the lawyer so far as shall be compatible with his self-respect and with his right to receive reasonable recompense for his services; and lawsuits with clients should be resorted to only to prevent injustice, imposition or fraud.

15. How Far a Lawyer May Go in Supporting a Client's Cause.

Nothing operates more certainly to create or to foster popular prejudice against lawyers as a class, and to deprive the profession of that full measure of public esteem and confidence which belongs to the proper discharge of its duties than does the false claim, often set up by the unscrupulous in defense of questionable transactions, that it is the duty of the lawyer to do whatever may enable him to succeed in winning his client's cause.

It is improper for a lawyer to assert in argument his personal belief in his client's innocence or in the justice of his cause.

The lawyer owes "entire devotion to the interest of the client, warm zeal in the maintenance and defense of his rights and the exertion of his utmost learning and ability," to the end that nothing be taken or be withheld from him, save by the rules of law, legally applied. No fear of judicial disfavor or public unpopularity should restrain him from the full discharge of his duty. In the judicial forum the client is entitled to the benefit of any and every remedy and defense that is authorized by the law of the land, and he may expect his lawyer to assert every such remedy or defense. But it is steadfastly to be borne in mind that the great trust of the lawyer is to be performed within and not without the bounds of the law. The office of attorney does not permit, much less does it demand of him for any client, violation of law or any manner of fraud or chicane. He must obey his own conscience and not that of his client.

16. Restraining Clients from Improprieties.

A lawyer should use his best efforts to restrain and to prevent his clients from doing those things which the lawyer himself ought not to do, particularly with reference to their conduct towards Courts, judicial officers, jurors, witnesses and suitors. If a client persists in such wrong-doing the lawyer should terminate their relation.

17. Ill-Feeling and Personalities Between Advocates.

Clients, not lawyers, are the litigants. Whatever may be the ill-feeling existing between clients, it should not be allowed to influence counsel in their conduct and demeanor toward each other or toward suitors in the case. All personalities between counsel should be scrupulously avoided. In the trial of a cause it is indecent to allude to the personal history or the personal peculiarities and idiosyncrasies of counsel on the other side. Personal colloquies between counsel which cause delay and promote unseemly wrangling should also be carefully avoided.

18. Treatment of Witnesses and Litigants.

A lawyer should always treat adverse witnesses and suitors with fairness and due consideration, and he should never minister to the malevolence or prejudices of a client in the trial or conduct of a cause. The client cannot be made the keeper of the lawyer's conscience in professional matters. He has no right to demand that his counsel shall abuse the opposite party or indulge in offensive personalities. Improper speech is not excusable on the ground that it is what the client would say if speaking in his own behalf.

19. Appearance of Lawyer as Witness for His Client.

When a lawyer is a witness for his client, except as to merely formal matters, such as the attestation or custody of an instrument and the like, he should leave the trial of the case to other counsel. Except when essential to the ends of justice, a lawyer should avoid testifying in court in behalf of his client.

20. Newspaper Discussion of Pending Litigation.

Newspaper publications by a lawyer as to pending or anticipated litigation may interfere with a fair trial in the Courts and otherwise prejudice the due administration of justice. Generally they are to be condemned. If the extreme circumstances of a particular case justify a statement to the public, it is unprofessional to make it anonymously. An ex parte reference to the facts should not go beyond quotation from the records and papers on file in the court; but even in extreme cases it is better to avoid any ex parte statement.

21. Punctuality and Expedition.

It is the duty of the lawyer not only to his client, but also to the Courts and to the public to be punctual in attendance, and to be concise and direct in the trial and disposition of causes.

22. Candor and Fairness.

The conduct of the lawyer before the Court and with other lawyers should be characterized by candor and fairness.

It is not candid or fair for the lawyer knowingly to misquote the contents of a paper, the testimony of a witness, the language or the argument of opposing counsel, or the language of a decision or a textbook; or with knowledge of its invalidity, to cite as authority a decision that has been overruled, or a statute that has been repealed; or in argument to assert as a fact that which has not been proved, or in those jurisdictions where a side has the opening and closing arguments to mislead his opponent by concealing or withholding positions in his opening argument upon which his side then intends to rely.

It is unprofessional and dishonorable to deal other than candidly with the facts in taking the statements of witnesses, in drawing affidavits and other documents, and in the presentation of causes.

A lawyer should not offer evidence which he knows the Court should reject, in order to get the same before the jury by argument for its admissibility, nor should he address to the Judge arguments upon any point not properly calling for determination by him. Neither should he introduce into an argument, addressed to the court, remarks or statements intended to influence the jury or bystanders.

These and all kindred practices are unprofessional and unworthy of an officer of the law charged, as is the lawyer, with the duty of aiding in the administration of justice.

23. Relations With Jury.

All attempts to curry favor with juries by fawning, flattery or pretended solicitude for their personal comfort are unprofessional. Suggestions of counsel, looking to the comfort or convenience of jurors, and propositions to dispense with argument, should be made to the Court out of the jury's hearing.

Both before and during the trial, a lawyer should avoid conversing or otherwise communicating with a juror on any subject, whether pertaining to the case or not. Subject to any limitations imposed by law it is a lawyer's right, after the jury has been discharged, to interview the jurors solely to determine whether their verdict is subject to any legal challenge provided he has reason to believe that ground for such challenge may exist, and further provided that prior to any such interview made by him or under his direction, he shall file in the cause, and deliver a copy to the trial judge and opposing counsel, a notice of intention to interview such juror or jurors setting forth in such notice the name of each such juror. The scope of the interview should be restricted and caution should be used to avoid embarrassment to any juror and to avoid influencing his action in any subsequent jury service.

24. Right of Lawyer to Control the Incidents of the Trial.

As to incidental matters pending the trial, not affecting the merits of the cause, or working substantial prejudice to the rights of the client, such as forcing the opposite lawyer to trial when he is under affliction or bereavement; forcing the trial on a particular day to the injury of the opposite lawyer when no harm will result from a trial at a different time; agreeing to an extension of time for signing a bill of exceptions, cross interrogatories and the like, the lawyer must be allowed to judge. In such matters no client has a right to demand that his counsel shall be illiberal, or that he do anything therein repugnant to his own sense of honor and propriety.

25. Taking Technical Advantage of Opposite Counsel; Agreements With Him.

A lawyer should not ignore known customs or practice of the Bar or of a particular Court, even when the law permits, without giving timely notice to the opposing counsel. As far as possible, important agreements, affecting the rights of clients, should be reduced to writing; but it is dishonorable to avoid performance of an agreement fairly made because it is not reduced to writing, as required by rules of Court.

26. Professional Advocacy Other Than Before Courts.

A lawyer openly, and in his true character may render professional services before legislative or other bodies, regarding proposed legislation and in advocacy of claims before departments of government, upon the same principles of ethics which justify his appearance before the Courts; but it is unprofessional for a lawyer so engaged to conceal his attorneyship, or to employ secret personal solicitations, or to use means other than those addressed to the reason and understanding to influence action.

27. Advertising, Direct or Indirect.

It is unprofessional to solicit professional employment by circulars, advertisements, through touters or by personal communications or interviews not warranted by personal relations. Indirect advertisements for professional employment such as furnishing or inspiring newspaper comments, or procuring his photograph to be published in connection with causes in which the lawyer has been or is engaged or concerning the manner of their conduct, the magnitude of the interest involved, the importance of the lawyer's position, and all other like self-laudation, offend the traditions and lower the tone of our profession and are reprehensible; but the customary use of simple professional cards is not improper.

Publication in reputable law lists in a manner consistent with the standards of conduct imposed by these canons of brief biographical and informative data is permissible. Such data must not be misleading and may include only a statement of the lawyer's name and the names of his professional associates; addresses, telephone numbers, cable addresses; branches of the profession practiced; date and place of birth and admission to the bar; schools attended; with dates of graduation, degrees and other educational distinctions; public or quasi-public offices; posts of honor; legal authorships; legal teaching positions; memberships and offices in bar associations and committees thereof, in legal and scientific societies and legal fraternities; the fact of listings in other reputable law lists; the names and addresses of references; and, with their written consent, the names of clients regularly represented. A certificate of compliance with the Rules and Standards issued by the Special Committee on Law Lists may be treated as evidence that such list is reputable.

It is not improper for a lawyer who is admitted to practice as a proctor in admiralty to use that designation on his letterhead or shingle or for a lawyer who has complied with the statutory requirements of admission to practice before the patent office, to so use the designation "patent attorney" or "patent lawyer" or "trademark attorney" or "trademark lawyer" or any combination of those terms.

28. Stirring Up Litigation, Directly or Through Agents.

It is unprofessional for a lawyer to volunteer advice to bring a lawsuit, except in rare cases where ties of blood, relationship or trust make it his duty to do so. Stirring up strife and litigation is not only unprofessional, but it is indictable at common law. It is disreputable to hunt up defects in titles or other causes of action and inform thereof in order to be employed to bring suit or collect judgment, or to breed litigation by seeking out those with claims for personal injuries or those having any other grounds of action in order to secure them as clients, or to employ agents or runners for like purposes, or to pay or reward, directly or indirectly, those who bring or influence the bringing of such cases to his office, or to remunerate policemen, court or prison officials, physicians, hospital attaches or others who may succeed, under the guise of giving disinterested friendly advice, in influencing the criminal, the sick and the injured, the ignorant or others, to seek his professional services. A duty to the public and to the profession devolves upon every member of the Bar having knowledge of such practices upon the part of any practitioner immediately to inform thereof, to the end that the offender may be disbarred.

29. Upholding the Honor of the Profession.

Lawyers should expose without fear or favor before the proper tribunals corrupt or dishonest conduct in the profession, and should accept without hesitation employment against a member of the Bar who has wronged his client. The counsel upon the trial of a cause in which perjury has been committed owe it to the profession and to the public to bring the matter to the knowledge of the prosecuting authorities. The lawyer should aid in guarding the Bar against the admission to the profession of candidates unfit or unqualified because deficient in either moral character or education. He should strive at all times to uphold the honor and to maintain the dignity of the profession and to improve not only the law but the administration of justice.

30. Justifiable and Unjustifiable Litigations.

The lawyer must decline to conduct a civil cause or to make a defense when convinced that it is intended merely to harass or to injure the opposite party or to work oppression or wrong. But otherwise it is his right, and, having accepted retainer, it becomes his duty to insist upon the judgment of the Court as to the legal merits of his client's claim. His appearance in Court should be deemed equivalent to an assertion on his honor that in his opinion his client's case is one proper for judicial determination.

31. Responsibility for Litigation.

No lawyer is obliged to act either as adviser or advocate for every person who may wish to become his client. He has the right to decline employment. Every lawyer upon his own responsibility must decide what employment he will accept as counsel, what causes he will bring into Court for plaintiffs, what cases he will contest in Court for defendants. The responsibility for advising as to questionable transactions, for bringing questionable suits, for urging questionable defenses, is the lawyer's responsibility. He cannot escape it by urging as an excuse that he is only following his client's instructions.

32. The Lawyer's Duty in Its Last Analysis.

No client, corporate or individual, however powerful, nor any cause, civil or political, however important, is entitled to receive nor should any lawyer render any service or advice involving disloyalty to the law whose ministers we are, or disrespect of the judicial office, which we are bound to uphold, or corruption of any person or persons exercising a public office or private trust, or deception or betrayal of the public. When rendering any such improper service or advice, the lawyer invites and merits stern and just condemnation. Correspondingly, he advances the honor of his profession and the best interests of his client when he renders service or gives advice tending to impress upon the client and his undertaking exact compliance with the strictest principles of moral law. He must also observe and advise his client to observe the statute law, though until a statute shall have been construed and interpreted by competent adjudication, he is free and is entitled to advise as to its validity and as to what he conscientiously believes to be its just meaning and extent. But above all a lawyer will find his highest honor in a deserved reputation for fidelity to private trust and to public duty, as an honest man and as a patriotic and loyal citizen.

33. Partnerships—Professional Service Corporations.

Partnerships among lawyers for the practice of their profession are very common and are not to be condemned. The formation and use of a professional service corporation for the practice of law pursuant to the provisions of The Professional Service Corporation Act shall be permissible, subject always to compliance with such rules, regulations and requirements as may from time to time be promulgated by the Supreme Court of Florida. In the formation of partnerships and professional service corporations and the use of partnership or corporate names, care should be taken not to violate any law, custom or rule of court locally applicable. In the formation of partnerships and professional service corporations for the practice of law, no person should be admitted or held out as a practitioner who is not a member of the legal profession duly authorized to practice and amenable to professional discipline. In the selection and use of a firm or corporate name no false, misleading, assumed or trade names should be used, except that a fictitious name may be used by a professional service corporation as authorized by The Professional Service Corporation Act. The continued use of the name of a deceased or former partner or shareholder when permissible by local custom is not unethical but care should be taken that no imposition or deception is practiced through this use. When a member of the firm or shareholder in the corporation, on becoming a judge, is precluded from practicing law, his name must not be continued in the firm or corporate name.

Partnerships between lawyers and members of other professions or nonprofessional persons must not be formed or permitted where any part of the partnership's employment consists of the practice of law.

The practice of law in any of its aspects by a professional service corporation as hereinabove sanctioned shall not in any way lessen the responsibilities of an individual lawyer or a group of lawyers under the Code of Ethics and such a corporation may not be used to lower, and shall not be permitted to lower, directly or indirectly, the ethical standards of the legal profession; and the Code of Ethics shall be construed accordingly.

34. Division of Fees.

No division of fees for legal services is proper, except with another lawyer, based upon a division of service or responsibility.

35. Intermediaries.

The professional services of a lawyer should not be controlled or exploited by any lay agency, personal or corporate, which intervenes between client and lawyer. A lawyer's responsibilities and qualifications are individual. He should avoid all relations which direct the performance of his duties by or in the interest of such intermediary. A lawyer's relation to his client should be personal, and the responsibility should be direct to the client. Charitable societies rendering aid to the indigents are not deemed such intermediaries.

A lawyer may accept employment from any organization, such as an association, club or trade organization, to render legal services in any matter in which the organization, as an entity, is interested, but this employment should not include the rendering of legal services to the members of such an organization in respect to their individual affairs.

Professional service corporations organized to practice law pursuant to The Professional Service Corporation Act shall not be deemed lay agencies or such intermediaries.

36. Retirement From Judicial Position or Public Employment.

A lawyer should not accept employment as an advocate in any matter upon the merits of which he has previously acted in a judicial capacity.

A lawyer, having once held public office or having been in the public employ, should not after his retirement accept employment in connection with any matter which he has investigated or passed upon while in such office or employ.

37. Confidences of a Client.

It is the duty of a lawyer to preserve his client's confidences. This duty outlasts the lawyer's employment, and extends as well to his employees; and neither of them should accept employment which involves or may involve the disclosure or use of these confidences, either for the private advantage of the lawyer or his employees or to the disadvantage of the client, without his knowledge and consent, and even though there are other available sources of such information. A lawyer should not continue employment when he discovers that this obligation prevents the performance of his full duty to his former or to his new client.

If a lawyer is accused by his client, he is not precluded from disclosing the truth in respect to the accusation. The announced intention of a client to commit a crime is not included within the confidences which he is bound to respect. He may properly make such disclosures as may be necessary to prevent the act or protect those against whom it is threatened.

38. Compensation, Commissions and Rebates.

A lawyer should accept no compensation, commissions, rebates or other advantages from others without the knowledge and consent of his client after full disclosure.

39. Witnesses.

A lawyer may properly interview any witness or prospective witness for the opposing side in any civil or criminal action without the consent of opposing counsel or party. In doing so, however, he should scrupulously avoid any suggestion calculated to induce the witness to suppress or deviate from the truth, or in any degree to affect his free and untrammeled conduct when appearing at the trial or on the witness stand.

40. Newspapers.

A lawyer may with propriety write articles for publications in which he gives information upon the law; but he should not accept employment from such publications to advise inquirers in respect to the individual rights.

41. Discovery of Imposition and Deception.

When a lawyer discovers that some fraud or deception has been practiced, which has unjustly imposed upon the court or a party, he should endeavor to rectify it; at first by advising his client, and if his client refuses to forego the advantage thus unjustly gained, he should promptly inform the injured person or his counsel, so that they may take appropriate steps.

42. Expenses.

A lawyer may not properly agree with a client that the lawyer shall pay or bear the expenses of litigation; he may in good faith advance expenses as a matter of convenience, but subject to reimbursement.

43. Approved Law Lists.

It shall be improper for a lawyer to permit his name to be published in a law list the conduct, management or contents of which are calculated or likely to deceive or injure the public or the profession, or to lower the dignity or standing of the profession.

44. Withdrawal From Employment as Attorney or Counsel.

The right of an attorney or counsel to withdraw from employment, once assumed, arises only from good cause. Even the desire or consent of the client is not always sufficient. The lawyer should not throw up the unfinished task to the detriment of his client except for reasons of honor or self-respect. If the client insists upon an unjust or immoral course in the conduct of his case, or if he persists over the attorney's remonstrance in presenting frivolous defenses, or if he deliberately disregards an agreement or obligation as to fees or expenses, the lawyer may be warranted in withdrawing on due notice to the client, allowing him time to employ another lawyer. So also when a lawyer discovers that his client has no case and the client is determined to continue it; or even if the lawyer finds himself incapable of conducting the case effectively. Sundry other instances may arise in which withdrawal is to be justified. Upon withdrawing from a case after a retainer has been paid, the attorney should refund such part of the retainer as has not been clearly earned.

45. Specialists.

The canons of the American Bar Association apply to all branches of the legal profession; specialists in particular branches are not to be considered as exempt from the application of these principles.

46. Notice of Specialized Legal Service.

Where a lawyer is engaged in rendering a specialized legal service directly and only to other lawyers, a brief, dignified notice of that fact, couched in language indicating that it is addressed to lawyers, inserted in legal periodicals and like publications, when it will afford convenient and beneficial information to lawyers desiring to obtain such service is not improper.

47. Aiding the Unauthorized Practice of Law.

No lawyer shall permit his professional services, or his name, to be used in aid of, or to make possible, the unauthorized practice of law by any lay agency, personal or corporate.

Professional service corporations organized to practice law pursuant to The Professional Service Corporation Act shall not be deemed lay agencies.

48. Communist Affiliation.

No lawyer shall become a member of, ally himself with, or in any way lend his allegiance to the Communist party or any subsidiary thereof (as contemplated by amendment to Article XI, disciplinary rule, of the Integration Rule of The Florida Bar, adopted July 13, 1956).

In order that a proper respect for and consideration of the integrity and character of all courts may be had and promoted, the conduct forbidden by this rule is deemed unethical and improper.

22. CANONS OF JUDICIAL ETHICS

(As adopted by the Florida Supreme Court on January 27, 1941, and December 6, 1955, and as amended November 17, 1958

Ancient Precedents

"And I charged your judges at that time, saying Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him."

"Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's; and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it."—Deuteronomy I: 16-17.

"Thou shall not wrest judgment; thou shall not respect persons, neither take a gift; for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous."—Deuteronomy 16:19.

"We will not make any justiciaries, constables, sheriffs or bailiffs, but from those who understand the law of the realm and are well disposed to observe it."—Magna Charta, XLV.

"Judges ought to remember that their office is jus dicere not jus dare; to interpret law, and not to make law, or give law. . . ."

"Judges ought to be more learned than witty; more reverend than plausible; and more advised than confident. Above all things, integrity is their portion and proper virtue.". . .

"Patience and gravity of hearing is an essential part of justice; and an over speaking judge is no well-tuned cymbal. It is no grace to a judge first to find that which he might have heard in due time from the Bar, or to show quickness of conceit in cutting off evidence or counsel too short; or to prevent information by questions though pertinent."

"The place of justice is a hallowed place; and therefore not only the Bench, but the foot pace and precincts and purprise thereof ought to be preserved without scandal and corruption." . . .—Bacon's Essay "Of Judicature."

1. Relations of the Judiciary.

The assumption of the office of judge casts upon the incumbent duties in respect to his personal conduct which concern his relation to the state and its inhabitants, the litigants before him, the principles of law, the practitioners of law in his court, and the witnesses, jurors and attendants who aid him in the administration of its functions.

2. The Public Interest.

Courts exist to promote justice, and thus to serve the public interest. Their administration should be diligent and careful. Every judge should at all times be alert in his rulings and in the conduct of the business of the court, so far as he can, to make it useful to litigants and to the community. He should avoid unconsciously falling into the attitude of mind that the litigants are made for the courts instead of the courts for the litigants.

3. Constitutional Obligations.

It is the duty of all judges in the United States to support the Federal Constitution and that of the State whose laws they administer; in so doing, they should fearlessly observe and apply fundamental limitations and guarantees.

4. Avoidance of Impropriety.

A judge's official conduct should be free from impropriety and the appearance of impropriety; he should avoid infractions of law; and his personal behavior, not only upon the Bench and in the performance of judicial duties, but also in his everyday life, should be beyond reproach.

5. Essential Conduct.

A judge should be temperate, attentive, patient, impartial, and since he is to administer the law and apply it to the facts, he should be studious of the principles of the law and diligent in endeavoring to ascertain the facts.

6. Industry.

A judge should exhibit an industry and application commensurate with the duties imposed upon him.

7. Promptness.

A judge should be prompt in the performances of his judicial duties, recognizing that the time of litigants, jurors and attorneys is of value and that habitual lack of punctuality on his part justifies dissatisfaction with the administration of the business of the court.

8. Court Organization.

A judge should organize the court with a view to the prompt and convenient dispatch of its business and he should not tolerate abuses and neglect by clerks, and other assistants who are sometimes prone to presume too much upon his good natured acquiescence by reason of friendly association with him.

It is desirable too, where the judicial system permits that he should cooperate with other judges of the same court, and in other courts, as members of a single judicial system, to promote the more satisfactory administration of justice.

9. Consideration for Jurors and Others.

A judge should be considerate of jurors, witnesses and others in attendance upon the court.

10. Courtesy and Civility.

A judge should be courteous to counsel, especially to those who are young and inexperienced, and also to all others appearing or concerned in the administration of justice in the court.

He should also require, and, so far as his power extends, enforce on the part of clerks, court officers and counsel civility and courtesy to the court and to jurors, witnesses, litigants and others having business in the court.

11. Unprofessional Conduct of Attorneys and Counsel.

A judge should utilize his opportunities to criticise and correct unprofessional conduct of attorneys and counsellors, brought to his attention; and if adverse comment is not a sufficient corrective, should send the matter at once to the proper investigating and disciplinary authorities.

12. Appointees of the Judiciary and Their Compensation.

Trustees, receivers, masters, referees, guardians and other persons appointed by a judge to aid in the administration of justice should have the strictest probity and impartiality and should be selected with a view solely to their character and fitness. The power of making such appointments should not be exercised by him for personal or partisan advantage. He should not permit his appointments to be controlled by others than himself. He should also avoid nepotism and undue favoritism in his appointments.

While not hesitating to fix or approve just amounts, he should be most scrupulous in granting or approving compensation for the services or charges of such appointees to avoid excessive allowances, whether or not excepted to or complained of. He cannot rid himself of this responsibility by the consent of counsel.

13. Kinship or Influence.

A judge should not act in a controversy where a near relative is a party; he should not suffer his conduct to justify the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor, or that he is affected by the kinship, rank, position of influence of any party or other person.

14. Independence.

A judge should not be swayed by partisan demands, public clamor or considerations of personal popularity or notoriety, nor be apprehensive of unjust criticism.

15. Interference in Conduct of Trial.

A judge may properly intervene in a trial of a case to promote expedition, and prevent unnecessary waste of time, or to clear up some obscurity, but he should bear in mind that his undue interference, impatience, or participation in the examination of witnesses, or a severe attitude on his part toward witnesses, especially those who are excited or terrified by the unusual circumstances of a trial, may tend to prevent the proper presentation of the cause, or the ascertainment of the truth in respect thereto.

Conversation between the judge and counsel in court is often necessary, but the judge should be studious to avoid controversies which are apt to obscure the merits of the dispute between litigants and lead to its unjust disposition. In addressing counsel, litigants, or witnesses, he should avoid a controversial manner or tone.

He should avoid interruptions of counsel in their arguments except to clarify his mind as to their positions, and he should not be tempted to the unnecessary display of learning or a premature judgment.

16. Ex Parte Applications.

A judge should discourage ex parte hearings of applications for injunctions and receiverships where the order may work detriment to absent parties; he should act upon such ex parte applications only where the necessity for quick action is clearly shown; if this be demonstrated then he should endeavor to counteract the effect of the absence of opposing counsel by a scrupulous cross-examination and investigation as to the facts and the principles of law on which the application is based, granting relief only when fully satisfied that the law permits it and the emergency demands it. He should remember that an injunction is a limitation upon the freedom of action of defendants and should not be granted lightly or inadvisedly. One applying for such relief must sustain the burden of showing clearly its necessity and this burden is increased in the absence of the party whose freedom of action is sought to be restrained even though only temporarily.

17. Ex Parte Communications.

A judge should not permit private interviews, arguments or communications designed to influence his judicial action, where interests to be affected thereby are not represented before him, except in cases where provision is made by law for ex parte application.

While the conditions under which briefs of arguments are to be received are largely matters of local rule of practice, he should not permit the contents of such brief presented to him to be concealed from opposing counsel. Ordinarily all communications of counsel to the judge intended or calculated to influence action should be made known to opposing counsel.

18. Continuances.

Delay in the administration of justice is a common cause of complaint; counsel are frequently responsible for this delay. A judge, without being arbitrary or forcing cases unreasonably or unjustly to trial when unprepared, to the detriment of parties, may well endeavor to hold counsel to a proper appreciation of their duties to the public interest, to their own clients, and to the adverse party and his counsel, so as to enforce due diligence in the dispatch of business before the court.

19. Judicial Opinions.

In disposing of controverted cases, a judge should indicate the reasons for his action in an opinion showing that he has not disregarded or overlooked serious arguments of counsel. He thus shows his full understanding of the case, avoids the suspicion of arbitrary conclusion, promotes confidence in his intellectual integrity and may contribute useful precedent to the growth of the law.

It is desirable that Courts of Appeal in reversing cases and granting new trials should so indicate their views on questions of law argued before them and necessarily arising in the controversy that upon the new trial counsel may be aided to avoid the repetition of erroneous positions of law and shall not be left in doubt by the failure of the court to decide such questions.

But the volume of reported decisions is such and is so rapidly increasing that in writing opinions which are to be published judges may well take this fact into consideration, and curtail them accordingly, without substantially departing from the principles stated above.

It is of high importance that judges constituting a court of last resort should use effort and self-restraint to promote solidarity of conclusion and the consequent influence of judicial decision. A judge should not yield to pride of opinion or value more highly his individual reputation than that of the court to which he should be loyal. Except in case of conscientious difference of opinion on fundamental principle, dissenting opinions should be discouraged in courts of last resort.

20. Influence of Decisions upon the Development of the Law.

A judge should be mindful that his duty is the application of general law to particular instances, that ours is a government of law and not of men, and that he violates his duty as a minister of justice under such a system if he seeks to do what he may personally consider substantial justice in a particular case and disregards the general law as he knows it to be binding on him. Such action may become a precedent unsettling accepted principles and may have detrimental consequences beyond the immediate controversy. He should administer his office with a due regard to the integrity of the system of the law itself, remembering that he is not a depositary of arbitrary power, but a judge under the sanction of law.

21. Idiosyncrasies and Inconsistencies.

Justice should not be moulded by the individual idiosyncrasies of those who administer it. A judge should adopt the usual and expected method of doing justice, and not seek to be extreme or peculiar in his judgment, or spectacular or sensational in the conduct of the court. Though vested with discretion in the imposition of mild or severe sentences he should not compel persons brought before him to submit to some humiliating act or discipline of his own devising, without authority of law, because he thinks it will have a beneficial corrective influence.

In imposing sentence he should endeavor to conform to a reasonable standard of punishment and should not seek popularity or publicity either by exceptional severity or undue leniency.

22. Review.

In order that a litigant may secure the full benefit of the right of review accorded to him by law, a trial judge should scrupulously grant to the defeated party opportunity to present the questions arising upon the trial exactly as they arose, were presented, and decided, by full and fair bill of exceptions or otherwise; any failure in this regard on the part of the judge is peculiarly worthy of condemnation because the wrong done may be irremediable.

23. Legislation.

A judge has exceptional opportunity to observe the operation of statutes, especially those relating to practice; and to ascertain whether they tend to impede the unjust disposition of controversies; and he may well contribute to the public interest by advising those having authority to remedy defects of procedure, of the result of his observation and experience.

24. Inconsistent Obligations.

A judge should not accept inconsistent duties, nor incur obligations, pecuniary or otherwise, which will in any way interfere or appear to interfere with his devotion to the expeditious and proper administration of his official functions.

25. Business Promotions and Solicitations for Charity.

A judge should avoid giving ground for any reasonable suspicion that he is utilizing the power or prestige to his office to persuade or coerce others to patronize or contribute, either to the success of private business ventures, or to charitable enterprises. He should, therefore, not enter into such private business, or pursue such a course of conduct, as would justify such suspicion, nor use the power of his office or the influence of his name to promote the business interests of others; he should not solicit for charities, nor should he enter into any business relation which, in the normal course of events reasonably to be expected, might bring his personal interest into conflict with the impartial performance of his official duties.

26. Personal Investments and Relations.

A judge should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which are apt to be involved in litigation in the court; and, after his accession to the Bench, he should not retain such investments previously made, longer than a period sufficient to enable him to dispose of them without serious loss. It is desirable that he should, so far as reasonably possible, refrain from all relations which would normally tend to arouse the suspicion that such relations warp or bias his judgment, or prevent his impartial attitude of mind in the administration of his judicial duties.

He should not utilize information coming to him in a judicial capacity for purposes of speculation; and it detracts from the public confidence in his integrity and the soundness of his judicial judgment for him at any time to become a speculative investor upon the hazard of a margin.

27. Executorships and Trusteeships.

While a judge is not disqualified from holding executorships or trusteeships, he should not accept or continue to hold any fiduciary or other position if the holding of it would interfere or seem to interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, or if the business interests of those represented require investments in enterprises that are apt to come before him judicially, or to be involved in questions of law to be determined by him.

28. Partisan Politics.[1]

While entitled to entertain his personal views of political questions, and while not required to surrender his rights or opinions as a citizen, it is inevitable that suspicion of being warped by political bias will attach to a judge who becomes the active promoter of the interests of one political party as against another.

[1]In 1950 the American Bar Association amended Canon 28 to read as follows:

"28. Partisan Politics. While entitled to entertain his personal views of political questions, and while not required to surrender his rights or opinions as a citizen, it is inevitable that suspicion of being warped by political bias will attach to a judge who becomes the active promoter of the interests of one political party as against another. He should avoid making political speeches, making or soliciting payment of assessments or contributions to party funds, the public endorsement of candidates for political office and participation in party conventions.

"He should neither accept nor retain a place on any party committee nor act as party leader, nor engage generally in partisan activities.

"Where however, it is necessary for judges to be nominated and elected as candidates of a political party, nothing herein contained shall prevent the judge from attending or speaking at political gatherings, or from making contributions to the campaign funds of the party that has nominated him and seeks his election or re-election."

He should avoid making political speeches, making or soliciting payment of assessments or contributions to party funds, except as required by law, the public endorsement of candidates for political office and participation in party conventions.

"He should neither accept nor retain a place on any party committee nor act as party leader, nor engage generally in partisan activities."[2]

29. Self-Interest.

A judge should abstain from performing or taking part in any judicial act in which his personal interests are involved. If he has personal litigation in the court of which he is judge, he need not resign his judgeship on that account, but he should, of course, refrain from any judicial act in such a controversy.

30. Candidacy for Office.

A candidate for judicial position should not make or suffer others to make for him, promises of conduct in office which appeal to the cupidity or prejudices of the appointing or electing power; he should not announce in advance his conclusions of law on disputed issues to secure class support, and he should do nothing while a candidate to create the impression that if chosen, he will administer his office with bias, partiality or improper discrimination.

While holding a judicial position he should not become an active candidate either at a party primary or at a general election for any office other than a judicial office. If a judge should decide to become a candidate for any office not judicial, he should resign in order that it cannot be said that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy or the success of his party.

If a judge becomes a candidate for any judicial office, he should refrain from all conduct which might tend to arouse reasonable suspicion that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his candidacy or the success of his party.

He should not permit others to do anything in behalf of his candidacy which would reasonably lead to such suspicion.

31. Private Law Practice.

In many states the practice of law by one holding judicial position is forbidden. In superior courts of general jurisdiction, it should never be permitted. In inferior courts in some states, it is permitted because the county or municipality is not able to pay adequate living compensation for a competent judge. In such cases one who practices law is in a position of great delicacy and must be scrupulously careful to avoid conduct in his practice whereby he utilizes or seems to utilize his judicial position to further his professional success.

He should not practice in the court in which he is a judge, even when presided over by another judge, or appear therein for himself or any controversy.

If forbidden to practice law, he should refrain from accepting any professional employment while in office.

He may properly act as arbitrator or lecture upon or instruct in law, or write upon the subject, and accept compensation therefor, if such course does not interfere with the due performance of his judicial duties, and is not forbidden by some positive provision of law.

32. Gifts and Favors.

A judge should not accept any presents or favors from litigants, or from lawyers practising before him or from others whose interests are likely to be submitted to him for judgment.

33. Social Relations.

It is not necessary to the proper performance of judicial duty that a judge should live in retirement or seclusion; it is desirable that, so far as reasonable attention to the completion of his work will permit, he continue to mingle in social intercourse, and that he should not discontinue his interest in or appearance at meetings of members of the Bar. He should, however, in pending or prospective litigation before him be particularly careful to avoid such action as may reasonably tend to awaken the suspicion that his social or business relations or friendships constitute an element in influencing his judicial conduct.

[2]As amended by the Supreme Court of Florida, November 17, 1958.

34. A Summary of Judicial Obligation.

In every particular his conduct should be above reproach. He should be conscientious, studious, thorough, courteous, patient, punctual, just, impartial, fearless of public clamor, regardless of public praise, and indifferent to private political or partisan influences; he should administer justice according to law, and deal with his appointments as a public trust; he should not allow other affairs or his private interests to interfere with the prompt and proper performance of his judicial duties, nor should he administer the office for the purpose of advancing his personal ambitions or increasing his popularity.

35. Improper Publicizing of Court Proceedings.

Proceedings in court should be conducted with fitting dignity and decorum. The taking of photographs in the court room, during sessions of the court or recesses between sessions, and the broadcasting or televising of court proceedings tend to detract from the essential dignity of the proceedings, distract the witness in giving his testimony, disturb the court, and create misconceptions with respect thereto in the mind of the public and should not be permitted.

Provided that this restriction shall not apply to photographing the broadcasting or televising, under the supervision of the court, of ceremonial proceedings or of such portions of naturalization proceedings (other than the interrogation of applicants) as are designed and carried out exclusively as a ceremony for the purpose of publicly demonstrating in an impressive manner the essential dignity and the serious nature of naturalization.

36. Conduct of Court Proceedings.

Proceedings in court should be so conducted as to reflect the importance and seriousness of the inquiry to ascertain the truth.

The oath should be administered to witnesses in a manner calculated to impress them with the importance and solemnity of their promise to adhere to the truth. Each witness should be sworn separately and impressively at the bar or the court, and the clerk should be required to make a formal record of the administration of the oath, including the name of the witness.

BY-LAWS OF THE YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION*

Article I

OBJECTS

The Young Lawyers Section of The Florida Bar is formed for the purpose of fostering discussion and interchange of ideas relative to the duties, responsibilities and problems of the younger members of the legal profession, aiding and promoting their advancement, encouraging their interest and participation in the activities of The Florida Bar and in general to further the purposes and objects of The Florida Bar.

Article II

MEMBERSHIP

All members of The Florida Bar who have not yet reached the age of thirty-six shall be enrolled as members of the Young Lawyers Section; provided, however, that any member who shall reach the age of 36 years shall be entitled to the rights and privileges of membership for the remainder of the fiscal year in which his 36th birthday occurs.

Article III

OFFICERS

The officers of the Young Lawyers Section shall be a President, a President-elect, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

A President-elect, a Secretary and a Treasurer shall be elected by the Board of Governors of the Section at a meeting held preceding the annual business meeting of the Section to be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of The Florida Bar.

In the event the President is absent or unable to act, his duties shall be performed by the President-elect, and in the absence of the President and President-elect such duties shall be performed by the Secretary, and in the absence of all of the foregoing officers, such duties shall be performed by the Treasurer. In the event of the death or resignation of the President, the President-elect shall serve as President during the remainder of the term of the office thus vacated, and then shall serve as President for the term for which he was elected. In the event the President-elect is absent or unable to act, or has become the President as provided herein, the Board of Governors shall select an acting President-elect to hold office until a successor shall have been elected by the Board of Governors of the Section at the next annual meeting or at a special election held pursuant to the direction of the Board of Governors. In the event of the death or disability of both the President and the President-elect, the Board of Governors shall elect an acting President and an acting President-elect of the Young Lawyers Section to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting at which meeting a President shall be elected for the succeeding year in addition to the other officers mentioned above. The Board of Governors shall fill by appointment any vacancy occurring in the office of Secretary or Treasurer of the Young Lawyers Section and it may designate one of its members to perform temporarily the duties of a Chairman in case of the absence or inability to act of an elected officer.

No active member of the Section shall be ineligible for election to any of the foregoing offices by reason of the fact that as a representative or representative-elect from a judicial circuit he is a member or member-elect of the Board of Governors; but anyone elected to any such office shall be entitled to cast only one vote on matters of business coming before the Board of Governors for consideration.

* Name changed from Junior Bar Section by order of Supreme Court on June 7, 1966.
By-law revisions approved by Board of Governors in September 1966 and June 1967 are incorporated herein.

Article IV

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

All officers shall be elected by the Board of Governors at a meeting thereof held immediately preceding the annual meeting of the Young Lawyers Section and shall hold office until the adjournment of the next annual meeting of the Young Lawyers Section and until their successors are elected and qualified. The same person shall not serve as President for two successive years except that a President-elect who serves the unexpired term of a President shall be entitled to serve as President during the term for which he was elected, pursuant to the provisions of Article III hereof. A majority of votes cast at such meeting shall be necessary to the election of all officers, and such vote in all cases shall be by written ballot unless waived by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Board of Governors present and voting at such meeting.

The Nominating Committee to nominate all officers and members of the Board of Governors shall consist of the President, who shall act as chairman, but shall have no vote on the committee, and one member from each of the judicial circuits as hereafter provided.

Prior to the convening of the annual meeting of The Florida Bar, the President of the Young Lawyers Section shall appoint one person from each judicial circuit to the Nominating Committee of the Young Lawyers Section.

Such Nominating Committee shall meet before said Board of Governors meeting provided for herein for the election of officers and it shall be the duty of the President, as chairman thereof, to notify all the members thereof of the time and place of such meeting or meetings; and the Nominating Committee shall nominate at least two candidates for each office for the ensuing year. The President shall make a written report of such nominations to the proper meeting entitled to act thereon and shall certify that the notice of all meetings of said committee has been given by him as hereinabove provided.

Article V

PRESIDENT

The President shall preside at all regular meetings of the Section, and shall be a member and chairman of the Board of Governors. He shall perform such other duties as the Board of Governors may from time to time prescribe.

Article VI

SECRETARY

The Secretary shall be a member of the Board of Governors, and shall keep the record of the proceedings of the Young Lawyers Section and of the Board of Governors, keep a roll of the members, attend to correspondence and issue notices of meeting, subject to the control of the Board of Governors, and perform such other duties as these regulations and the Board of Governors may require.

Article VII

TREASURER

The Treasurer shall be a member of the Board of Governors, and shall account for all funds of the Young Lawyers Section. He shall certify to the Executive Director of The Florida Bar for payment of all expenses incurred in behalf of the Young Lawyers Section and shall cooperate with the Executive Director of The Florida Bar in matters relating to the fiscal affairs of the Young Lawyers Section. The Treasurer, immediately on assuming office, shall, under the direction of the President and Board of Governors, prepare a budget to be submitted to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, for its approval.

Article VIII

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

There shall be a Board of Governors of the Young Lawyers Section, to be composed of the President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer and one or more members from each judicial circuit, the number of such members from each circuit to be the same as the number of members that such circuit shall have upon the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar. The members of the Board of Governors shall be elected at the annual business meeting out of the members of the Section and shall take office immediately upon the adjournment of the annual meeting of the Young Lawyers Section following their election.

The members of the Board of Governors from each judicial circuit shall be elected by the active members of the Young Lawyers Section residing in such judicial circuit, who shall be present and who shall vote at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee designated in Article IV shall, prior to the annual business meeting of the Section, nominate to the Board of Governors of the Section members from the circuits whose terms expire according to this Article VIII. The Nominating Committee shall certify its nominations in writing to the President and shall make its report at the annual business meeting of the Section. Five (5) members of the Young Lawyers Section from any one judicial circuit may nominate any person from that circuit to the Board of Governors of the Young Lawyers Section provided a nominating petition signed by said (5) members has been received by the President and the Secretary of the Young Lawyers Section at least thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the annual meeting of The Florida Bar. Each elected member shall hold office for two (2) years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The members representing the odd numbered circuits shall be elected in odd numbered years; the members representing the even numbered circuits shall be elected in even numbered years. Any vacancy on the Board of Governors arising in the office of representatives from a judicial circuit shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board for the unexpired term, from the active membership of such circuit.

The Board of Governors shall have the general management and control of the affairs of the Young Lawyers Section, subject to the Rule Integrating The Florida Bar, the By-Laws of The Florida Bar, and these By-Laws. The Board of Governors shall assist and cooperate with the officers and committees of The Florida Bar and it may recommend to the President thereof members of the Young Lawyers Section to serve upon the various committees of The Florida Bar.

The Board of Governors shall meet not less than three times during each fiscal year, including the annual meeting, at such time and place as the President may announce; provided that one of such meetings shall coincide with a regular mid-winter meeting of the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

Upon the failure of any member of the Board of Governors to attend two successive meetings, his membership on the Board shall become terminated and the Board at such second successive meeting shall fill such vacancy as provided hereinabove.

Article IX

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The President with the approval and consent of the Board of Governors, may appoint an Executive Committee consisting of the President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer and five other members of the Board of Governors. The Executive Committee by two-thirds vote may exercise the powers of the Board of Governors during any period when the Board of Governors is not meeting, subject to such limitations as may be imposed by the Board of Governors.

The Board of Governors may create such standing committees and such special committees as it may deem advisable. Standing committees shall continue in existence until terminated by the Board of Governors; special committees shall be terminated at the end of each annual meeting.

The chairman of each committee shall submit an interim written report to the meeting of the Board of Governors coinciding with the mid-winter meeting of the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar as hereinabove provided and an annual written report to the meeting of the Board of Governors immediately preceding each annual meeting of the Young Lawyers Section.

Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, The Florida Bar, after careful screening by its Legislation Committee and the Board of Governors, may sponsor or endorse only legislation which is important to the legal profession or the administration of justice.

The word "sponsor" as used herein means that The Florida Bar will actively support before the legislature and use its best efforts to effect acceptance and passage by the legislature of proposed legislation which the Board of Governors agrees to sponsor.

The word "endorse" as used herein means that The Florida Bar agrees with the objectives and purpose of the endorsed legislation but means also that The Florida Bar will not actively work for the passage of endorsed legislation.

The Board of Governors shall establish a priority of the importance of proposed legislation which it will sponsor and, except in cases of demonstrated unusual importance, the Board of Governors shall not sponsor more than six legislative measures in any one regular session.

As rewritten in accordance with amendments made by Special Committee at its meeting held March 16, 1967, in Tallahassee and adopted by the Board of Governors in May 1967.*

The State tax on Deeds is on the full consideration and the value of any mortgage may NOT be deducted in computing the consideration.

Federal Stamps: Rate, 55¢ per $500.00 of consideration or fraction thereof of Deeds, an additional 55¢ stamp being affixed for a fraction of $500.00. If the consideration is $100.00 or less, the Deed is not taxable by the Federal Government. If an existing Mortgage is assumed, the amount of said Mortgage should be deducted from the consideration and Federal Stamps affixed to the Deed based on the difference.

*This federal stamp, as levied under Section 4361, Title 26, U. S. Code, is scheduled to be repealed effective January 1, 1968. Anticipating that repeal, the Florida Legislature passed a law on July 6, 1967, effective January 1, 1968, or when the documentary stamp tax levied by the United States is repealed. Section 201.021, Florida Statutes, from that date requires a documentary sur tax at the rate of 55¢ per $500.00 of the consideration paid, provided when real estate is sold, the consideration shall not include amounts of existing mortgages.

"Freedom must be at all times defended, because it is at all times besieged. Not all of us are called to fight on the battlefield. Many of us must, quietly and firmly, do what we can and all that we must, here at home. Buying Bonds, regularly, is as important to this nation in the long reach of history as almost anything we can do."

President Johnson displays the first Freedom Share.

Now there is a new way for Americans to help their country—and help themselves as well. When you buy U.S. Savings Bonds regularly—through Payroll Savings where you work or Bond-a-Month where you bank—you are also entitled to purchase new Freedom Shares. Freedom Shares are short-term Savings Notes. They pay a higher return than Savings Bonds (4.74% when held to maturity in 4½ years), may be bought one-for-one with Bonds in four denominations, and are redeemable after one year. You will find complete information where you work or bank.

Do your share.
Sign up for U.S. Savings Bonds, new Freedom Shares.

The little gift that grows. And grows. And grows.

U. S. Savings Bonds are a gift that never stops growing.

Since 1941, when they first came into the world, no Series E Savings Bond has ever stopped earning money for its owner. Which may be one of the reasons dollars invested in Bonds stay there for an average of seven years, even though Bonds convert easily into cash whenever it's needed.

And who knows what your gift will turn into? Maybe tuition for college. Or part of a down payment on a new home. Bonds are as versatile as they are dependable. That's the beauty of them.

The little gift that grows in value also helps your country grow. For Savings Bonds represent a big stake in America's future—and in the hope for a world that's truly free.

Bonds come in many convenient sizes, starting out at $18.75. If you've been stumped by gift decisions for birthdays, Bar Mitzvahs, Christmas or christenings, your troubles are over. Give the one to grow on. And on. And on.
